

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

Volume 1

“The Summer of Extraordinary”

Week 4

Simon Sez Fun!

Week 4 was certainly a fun week here at Eagle’s Landing Day Camp! We started off the week with Mustache Monday where we saw mustaches of all shapes and sizes on campers big and little. Then it was on to the DDR Dance Off on Tuesday, where the feet were flying as music played in DDR. Tuesday was also the night of the Boys 6/7/8 Overnight. The boys played games in the pool as well as Capture the Flag. They ate delicious pizza, enjoyed a sundae bar and ended the night watching “The Incredibles”. A fun time was had by all. Wednesday was the fourth special day of the summer, Holiday Hulabaloo, and what a super day it was. Campers were greeted by the Easter Bunny and there was an Easter Egg Hunt on the Grassy Knoll. Pin the Flame on the Menorah and a dance party in honor of Mardi Gras were just two of the many activities. Everyone participated in the show led by Steve Max the Simon Sez Guru. Not only was the show hilarious, Steve gave the campers a wonderful message about respect for others. Way to go Steve! Thursday was The E Factor when each division showed off their singing ability to the judges. The X Factor has nothing on our campers. That night the Girls of 6/7/8 would not be outdone. They had their own overnight and what an amazing evening it was! First there was a super yummy dinner. Next it was manicures for all and a game of Manhunt. S’mores and a movie completed the evening. Friday was another camper fave - Crazy Hair Day and boy was that hair K-rraayzee! Have a great weekend and rest up for an amazing week 5.

A FUN-FILLED WEEK

It was a fantastic and fun-filled week for the boys of B5A. The group added two new members named Christopher Bavaro and Logan Weiss. Christopher's favorite activity was Tennis, while Logan loved Wall Ball. Theodore Blume had a great time in Cooking where he made a fudge and marshmallow snack. Both Brandon Heyman and Brendan Kupsch had a wonderful time in Wall Ball, each winning two games. Aidan Puchalik had a great week in which he had two hits in a softball game. Brendan Reiss had a great time in ping pong, winning all of his games. For Zach Regen, the fun didn't stop. He won a game of Ga-Ga and also had a blast swimming with his friends in the pool. Jack Yatsko and Joel Simon loved the pool as well; smiling and laughing with their campmates in the water and going down the slide. Overall, it was an awesome week for the boys of B5A.

Alec, Counselor and Eran, JC B5A

Jenn's Cooking Corner Pretzel Spiders

Ingredients

- 2 round crackers
- 8 small pretzel sticks
- cream cheese
- 2 raisins or craisins

Description

Make a sandwich of the crackers filled with cream cheese. Insert pretzel "legs" into the filling. With a dab of filling stick the 2 raisin or craisin eyes on top.

A Ton of Fun

The B3 Awesome Amazing Army had a ton of fun in their 4th week together at Eagle's Landing Day Camp. We had a great time celebrating all the holidays at Wednesday's Holiday Hulabaloo. Nathan Lipton did an awesome job in hockey where his team beat the team of the hockey instructor, Clint. Along with Nathan, Kyle Sampson and Alex Aizley joined the ELDC swim team.

Luke O'Brien got the chance to climb the Rock Wall while participating in the Ropes elective. Evan Warner and Matty Banks took basketball as an elective and they both showed great form shooting the ball.

Jack Stoeckel owned the Wall Ball court, making it hard on the other campers trying to get him out.

Meanwhile Andrew Kenny made his own bouncy ball in Mad Science. Last but certainly not least, Harrison LaRaia went down the zipline like a champ. He was one of the few third graders to do that so far this summer. It's been a great 4 weeks.

Greg, Counselor and Nick, JC B3A

IT'S A BLAST!

The first half of the summer has been a blast! From campers who have never skate boarded before to campers who are already pros, everyone is having a good time. The 3/4/5 campers have been working on their riding and turning skills. Some even started practicing their Ollies. The 6/7/8 campers have been perfecting their Ollies and are moving on to the Pop - Shove - its. Next week I will start putting the bravest campers on the ramps! I can't wait for the rest of the summer.

Clint, Skate Park Instructor

WELL ON THEIR WAY

It's halfway through the summer, the B5Beasts are well on their way to a great summer of 2013. Zach Lacerte and Josh Stein showed off their talent at Wall Ball, where they faced off in the finals. Jaden Hecht had a blast at Mad Science, where he made Oobleck with the rest of the group. Connor Gabilanes and A.J. Gabilanes had a fantastic time at Ga-Ga showing off their athleticism. Mike Mendoza had a great time going horseback riding. Guy Plawner had a lot of fun zipping the line at the Rock Wall. Tyler Sommer and Jeremy Oliver loved shooting their arrows at Archery. Jake Feinerman showed off his power at Tennis Baseball, crushing a ball for a double to left field. Dan Alexeev had an awesome time at Cooking making "Armpit" fudge with the rest of B5B. As incredible as the first half of the summer was, we're looking forward to making the second half even better.

Zack, Counselor and Evan, JC B5B

JUMPING THROUGH THE WEEKS

The Jumping Jellybeans of BKA are excitedly jumping through the weeks of summer! Each "jellybean" has had a blast experiencing all the awesome activities. Starting off week 4, we had a wonderful new addition, Frank Gangemi, who was greeted with a warm welcome by BKA. Frank loved the pool and showed off his amazing swimming skills during instructional and free swim. Leighton Carpenito was swinging along the monkey bars, sliding down the slides and climbing through the playground this week laughing and smiling all the way. Alexander Coppola was awesome in Drama as he acted out all the different animals for the entire group using super cool animal puppets. Adrianna Lopez was a master chef in Cooking where she made a delicious "spider" treat using crackers, pretzels and cream cheese - YUM! Alexas Manzano was a professional at Computers using all the different programs. Sienna Mitchell grooved and shook her hips to the music at Dance as we learned some awesome new moves. Cooper Powell had a blast in Arts & Crafts coloring and decorating his own fish. Ciara Van Ness had a great time in Mad Science as she learned about and experienced using all different types of magnets.

Everyone in BKA is so proud of Hannah Yatsko for conquering her fear of the Spray Park. Now she loves running through, getting splashed and watching her counselors get drenched by the buckets.

Look out Eagle's Landing, there are beautiful projects made by our very own Emily Wyand coming out of Ceramics. Emily loves using all her strength to roll out the clay and pat it down to perfection. Last but not least, Ryan Weiss is the all-star mini golfer in the group. He manages to get a hole-in-one every time! Go Ryan! BKA is having a blast so far this summer. We never want it to end!

Erika, Brenda and Kare, Counselors BKA

Week 4 Was Awesome

G6B had an awesome 4th week of camp! We were excited to welcome back one camper, but sad to see some others go. We can't wait to see them next year. Sarah Butler's favorite activity was making cookies in Cooking. Stefanie Goldstein enjoyed Baking with Alissa. Nicole Myers rocked it out in Drama. Janna Tepperman loved making a rainbow suncatcher in Arts & Crafts. Cynthia Zhang's favorite activity was horseback riding, while Alex Ascitutto had fun swimming. Anaya Crenshaw, Carla Evans, Carly Manfre and Dana Wasserman had an amazing time at Jenkinson's Beach and Boardwalk. We can't wait for week 5.

Jamie and Dana, Counselors and Jules, JC

Another Great Week

We started off a great fourth week at Eagle's Landing Day Camp. Everyone was looking forward to a fun-filled week. Connor Beckman enjoyed Archery very much. Brandon Cavalli was thrilled by making a rubber ball in Mad Science along with his fellow camper Avery Gordon. Brendan Coulthard is having a tremendous amount of fun at camp and making friends. Julian Dutable joined our group and has had an awesome time. Sam Friedman loved Arts & Crafts a lot. Justin Ockun and Brian Steinberg showed off their skills at Ga-Ga.

George, Counselor and Nikhil, JC B3C

Having the Time of Their Lives

The Rockstars of BKC are having the time of their lives so far this summer. Sean Aronson is learning all about animals in Nature, his favorites are the bunny and the turtle. Our little scientist of the group is Matthew Bershada loves experimenting with magnets and bubbles. Justin Bryan is a future NBA star, he makes every hoop. Ty Hecht favorite part of camp is Dance, he loves to boogie to all the songs. Brendan Kasner and DJ Pearce love to play Angry Birds and cheer each other on. Aiden Podinker loves to run around the playground and play pretend with his friends. Michael Selby is the newest member of our group. The boys welcomed him and he was a rockstar at soccer. Benjamin Stoeckel and Ritik Thukral enjoy riding the turtle scooters during tennis. The Rockstars of BKC are excited for what the rest of the summer has in store.

Monica and Steph, Counselors BKC

Some call us the BKB Boys, but we are really the Men of BKB. We have been having a blast together. Aiden Fung likes to experiment with Mad Dan during Mad Science. Elliot Genge loves to visit our furry friends in Nature. Joshua Goldenfarb has been showing off his artistic abilities and has made his mark as the Kiddie Kingdom Picasso in Arts & Crafts.

Brandon Buchan was a speed demon while riding a scooter on the Tennis courts. He brightens everyone's day with his laughter. Barry Solano liked to flex his muscles and show off on the T-ball field. Joey Kloc is a master on the soccer field, weaving in and out of the others. Gavin Salgado baked us some yummy treats in the Bake Shop. Last but not least, Jacob Lynn is not only the best hugger in the group, but also a rising mini golf star. Look out Tiger Woods!

We are so thrilled to be a part of such an amazing group of men. We cannot wait to see what the rest of the summer brings.

Jamie, Counselor and Emily, JC BKB

Middle Camp Campers say...

Eagles Landing's Great

Week 1 came with lots of fun,
Seeing a helicopter come down from the sun!
We went on adventures for the 4th of July,
Meeting American heroes, that's not a lie!

Week 2 was out of sight!
Both boys and girls had an overnight.
The boys played Prison Ball and Capture the Flag for the ELDC nation
While the girls made shirt and pillowcase decorations!
The boys made s'mores before sleep and snore
And the girls ate ice cream sundaes neither camper nor counselor were bored.

Week 3 was HOT but the crafts set us free!
We stayed cool in the pool
And food in Cooking and Baking made us drool.
We slid down the waterslide
And Jell-O Tug-of-War made counselors glide.

Week 4 was all about Simon Sez with Steve Max
The Holiday Hulabaloo was like a vacation to relax.
Girls loved dance parties and boys were happy to get back
in the field,
Only to more fun did we yield.

*Michelle and Justin, Division Leaders
Boys and Girls 3/4/5*

SMILES AND LAUGHTER

It has been nothing but smiles and laughter in G2B this week. We've had awesome activities and on Wednesday we had our Holiday Hulabaloo! Mia Alfonzetti showed her true chef side in Bake Shop when we made chocolate pastries! Rebecca Altmann and Stephanie Buttons had an amazing time during free swim. Alexandria Brown and Ruby LeDonne climbed both sides of the mini rock wall at Ropes. Kaylin Matthews was a rockstar at Ga-Ga showing sportsmanship while having a great time! Emmy Winston made a beautiful wood necklace at Nature. During Ceramics, Sarah Hogan and Lauren Reiss painted their bowls and they were beautiful. During Fantatic Fun, Riley Sobolewski had a great round of Angry Birds. We can't wait for more fun to come in week 5.

Kim, Counselor and Rachel JC G2B

JAM PACKED

Dance this week was jam-packed with excitement. Campers learned dance styles like jazz, ballet, lyrical, hip-hop, break dancing and popping. The campers are showing great promise in grasping dances and really seem to enjoy it. Whether they're going across the floor with jazz exercises with Nikki, or doing headstands and handstands on mats with Tom, each camper enjoys participating which is evident by the giant smiles on their faces. It has been such a productive summer so far, we can't wait to see the progress all the campers make by the end of camp.

Tom and Nikki, Dance Instructors

Kicking off the Fun

G4A kicked off the fourth week with soccer! Hayley Boka had a blast playing Steal the Bacon. Tori Cohen and Julia Perez showed their creative side when they made paper dolls in Arts & Crafts. Our group showed spirit by dressing up for Halloween on Holiday Hulabaloo. Rebecca Smoller was a scary witch, Isabella Newman was a beautiful butterfly and Hannah Keenan was a pretty cheerleader. Rebecca Perez really enjoyed playing Queen of the Court in Tennis. She mastered her back hand swing. Becca Smoller was very artistic in Ceramics making a spot-on Soarin' Sammy. We can't wait for all the fun week 5 will bring.

Hayley, Counselor and Gina, JC G4A

HAVING A GREAT TIME

B3B is having a great time at camp. Ryan Schreier always found the open man in basketball. Sean Salas was very fast on the Ropes obstacle course. Mason Kloc showed off his leg in soccer, scoring a goal. Michael Lopes was able to get his counselor out in Ga-Ga. T.J. Meehan consistently hit the tennis ball over the net to win King of the Court. J.P. Meehan enjoyed making tasty fudge in Cooking. Yusef Shehat was like Robin Hood at Archery, hitting the target many times. We can't wait too see what happens next!

Kyle, Counselor and Nikhil, JC B3B

The Funky G4B

G4B had an amazing 4th week of camp. We can't believe summer is half way over! Madeline Branin painted a beautiful gold eagle in Ceramics. Mary Rose Salva made a super cool colorful tray in Arts & Crafts. Celia Schmeidler showed the group her outstanding tennis skills during Queen of the Court. Courtney Herzberg kicked the ball so far in kickball and ran the bases with super speed. Peyton Lollin showed off her terrific skills during Dance and amazed the group. Allison Pepitone showed off her Ga-Ga skills and got half the 5th graders out. Annaliese Simons impressed us with her DDR moves! She rocked! Allie Richards made really nice jewelry in Arts & Crafts, it was beautiful. G4B can't wait for week five.

Danielle, Counselor and Gina, JC G4B

Oops! Please forgive us. Joey Reilly, in group B4A, was inadvertently left out of his group's article last week. We want everyone to know how much fun Joey is having in camp. He loved all his electives - Computers, Mad Science, Ropes, DDR and Ga-Ga. He also thoroughly enjoyed participating in Simon Sez during Holiday Hulabaloo.

I Don't Know About You, But We're Feeling Proud and True

What an extraordinary summer so far!! The LIT's and CIT's have been having a blast in the sun, working hard, and making new friends. As learned from the movie, Lilo and Stitch, "Ohana means family, family means nobody gets left behind." Between the two groups, we have formed an incredibly strong family, knowing we are all here for each other. With the help of Lauren and Fitz, the division's counselors, our group has never been closer.

The CIT's have been rockin' this summer. They are wonderful with their groups, and have been a huge help in assisting in organizing special days and lending an extra hand where needed. Whether they are learning new games or gaining new tools to use, these CIT's are working hard to make sure their campers are having the best summer yet! They are currently working on a drive to get baby and personal hygiene products for our partner, RISE, in Hightstown, NJ. Any donations would be greatly appreciated. We will be accepting donations until August 2nd. In addition, the CITs are working on a big community service event that all families are invited to in Week 7! It is sure to make a big splash. Stayed tuned for more information.

The LIT's are also leaving their mark at camp. They have been busy learning to understand what it takes to be a great leader. Although they only see their groups for a few periods a day, these LIT's are doing an awesome job. Their community service takes place with RISE, at the organization's thrift store for the community. Their help and teamwork has already made a huge difference with the running of the store by helping to organize donations, straighten up shelves and cleaning. We will be going three more times before the summer is over and the campers will receive community service hours. Organizing, outside clean up, and heavy lifting are nothing for future leaders!

This week we hit up Jenkinson's for some great rays and fun at the arcade. Next week, we have a special scavenger hunt planned and our overnight all in the same day. We are super excited to make s'mores, play some games, go swimming, and hang out with each other. We cannot wait to see how the second half of this summer turns out. If it's anything like the first half, then we know it will be extraordinary!

Jordan and Elise, CIT/LIT Division Leaders

Summer of Fun

The B8A boys are continuing their summer of fun. Dylan Lefkowitz really enjoys Ropes and likes to challenge himself by not using his hands when on the tightrope. Ryan Descoteau killed it at swim team tryouts with a blazing fast time. Scottie Tilbor cannot be taken off the basketball courts and his jump shot is right on. Irving Lopez is still tearing up the soccer field. Connor Carey is always playing a sport and David Phenes likes to try out all the activities he can. Dom Alfonzetti is always finding bugs and rare shells even when he's not in Nature. Well, that was an exciting four weeks in camp and we re eager to continue to let the good times roll!

Glen, Counselor B8A

There's No Business Like Show Business!

Auditions are completed, rehearsals have begun, and the woodshop is cranking out the scenery. The Performing Arts Center is filled with music and dramatic dialog every day as the campers prepare for the drama shows. We are so excited to present the Dear Edwina Show by Upper Camp run by Edwina Spoonapple, the Advice-Giver Extraordinaire from Paw Paw Michigan. Middle Camp is preparing their vocal talents as they "audition" for American Idol: Duets Edition. Will they be prepared to face our celebrity judges!? Turn up the radio for the Lower Camp show as they present Rockin' Radio, the best hits of today. With hits from One Direction, Selena Gomez, and many more your feet will be tapping and your hands will be clapping! And get ready for an adventure as Kiddie Kingdom takes you on a tour through the JUNGLE!

On Thursday, August 15 Kiddie Kingdom will present In the Jungle at 10:15 AM and Lower Camp will present Rockin' Radio at 1:00 PM. On Wednesday, August 21 Middle Camp will present American Idol: Duets at 6:30 PM and Dear Edwina will be presented at 7:15 PM. All of our performances will be held in the Eagle's Landing Performing Arts Center. Please invite everyone and anyone and enjoy the shows!

Adam, Drama Coordinator

Great Summer So Far

The girls of G2A are having a great summer so far! Alexis Bershada really enjoys swimming with her friends during free swim. Sarah Brown had a great time playing new games on the Computer. Eliana Fass loved learning new dance moves during Dance for the Drama Show. Ava Gallucci was amazing at Ga-Ga and had a blast trying to get her counselors out. Peyton Maniaci painted her pet rock in many colors during Arts & Crafts. Maya Salzberg had fun reading and acting during Drama. Samara Stein had a great time playing competitive games such as tag on the playground. Sydney Webber did a great job helping her friends make ice cream during Mad Science. G2A had so much fun this week and they can't wait to see what next week will bring!

Jessica, Counselor and Caitlin, JC G2A

WHAT'S NEXT?

B3D had an awesome week at camp. Will Gammon and Marc Gonzalez loved to swim. Spencer Branin made the camp swim team. Kyle Townsend made a great looking checkerboard in Arts & Crafts. Chris Holmes loved having Computers as an elective. Dominic Liquari and Jack Progebin enjoyed playing softball. Michael Tepperman was a great Wall Ball player. This week B3D had so much fun! What's next?

Matt, Counselor and Nick, JC B3D

A Home Run!

Softball is a blast this summer. Campers are learning all different types of skills, from throwing to catching and even hitting the ball. The softball and tennis baseball games are heating up with competition. The sportsmanship throughout the games are ideal for camp. The 2nd half of camp is going to be amazing with a Tennis Baseball tournament and a big home run derby. It's going to be a great 2nd half for camp.

Santos, Softball Instructor

Alissa's Bake Shop

Marshmallow Fudge

Ingredients

1 1/3 cups semisweet chocolate chips
2/3 cup fat-free sweetened condensed milk
1 tsp vanilla extract
1 1/3 cups miniature marshmallows
2 whole reduced-fat graham crackers, broken into bite-size pieces

Directions

Line an 8 in. Square pan with foil and coat with cooking spray; set aside. In a small heavy saucepan over low heat, melt chocolate chips with milk; stir until smooth. Remove from the heat; cool for 2 minutes. Stir in vanilla. Fold in marshmallows and graham crackers. Pour into prepared pan. Refrigerate for 1 hour or until firm. Using foil lift fudge out of pan. Discard foil; cut into 12 pieces.

one wonderful summer

G3C had a wonderful week at camp! Samantha Alter loved going swimming and playing in the pool with her friends. Carly Drobbin enjoyed making her basket in Arts & Crafts. Tavis Ganguly enjoyed making tasty foods in Cooking. Alexandra Gawron had a great first week and really enjoyed swimming and making new friends. Maya Goldschmidt also had a wonderful first week as well. Not only did she pass the deep water test on her first day, she loved DDR. Ryan Ramos loved participating in every activity we did this week. Emma Regen enjoyed Cooking and making her yummy quiche. Haley Sawyer loved Arts & Crafts, making baskets, seashell frames and bracelets. Emily Yatsko enjoyed participating in Tennis and made a count-off system for the group.

Overall, G3C had a fantastic week and can't wait for the rest of the summer.

Hollie, Counselor and Gemma Rose, JC G3C

Enjoying the Summer

The boys of B8B are enjoying every part of camp. Alex Enny's favorite activity is running around and doing all the sports. Sean Brennan enjoyed cooling off and hanging out with his friends at the pool. Simon Montes De Oca likes learning new skills at the Skate Park. Ethan Pearl likes the hockey rink best. Watch out everyone! Joseph Spinosi and Michael Tenenbaum are both amazing at Ga-Ga. If you want to find Alex Simmens, just go down to Nature. He loves petting all the animals down there.

We're all excited for next week's trips, the Scavenger Hunt on Wednesday and a trip to Mahzu on Friday. Just a few reminders for camp. Please give your camper extra clothing and pair of flip flops to leave at camp for emergencies. Also, remind your campers to put on sun screen throughout the day as it can be extremely sunny. Enjoy the rest of your summer!

Michael, Counselor and Ethan, JC B8B

B5C has been having a wonderful summer. Adam Berner is our Wall Ball champion, he consistently shines during the activity. Ari Greenberg is our ping pong fanatic, you do not want to face this camper in ping pong. Kunal Yeolekar took part in one of the more interesting electives offered Eagle's Landing and he got a chance to ride and groom a horse at Farrington Farms. Kendall Fields can dance like there's no tomorrow! If you see him at Dance I suggest you stop in and take some notes. Billy Yatsko loves our science related activities including Mad Science and Nature.

Evan, Counselor and Sagie, JC B5C

A Bonding Experience

G4C had a blast this week. We all bonded through numerous games of Elephant Master and chatting. The girls all had an unbelievable time in lots of activities. Jessica Samborsky was a Ga-Ga superstar. Jillian Mann showed off her climbing skills in Ropes when she raced to the top of the Rock Wall. Riley Kornblum sculpted a magnificent wind chime in Ceramics. Devin Hecht loved running through the Spray Park. Allie Hahn sang and danced like a rock star in Drama Show practice. Rachel Gurevich was a chef in Cooking where she made fudge and quiche. Gabriella Gaskell had an awesome first week of camp, she really loved making paper dolls in Arts & Crafts. Shaina Garb enjoyed learning the wobble and dancing to "Girl on Fire" in Dance. Nia Brown was an all-star tennis player. Brooke Amberg became a scientist when she made ice cream in Mad Science. We can't wait for all the fun in week 5.

Julia, Counselor and Gina, JC G4C
