

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

Volume 5

"Summer of FUN-nominal"

Week 3

Another FUN-nominal Week at Eagle's Landing!

Camp is in full swing and everyone is having such a wonderful time. Everyone from campers to the staff is having a fantastic summer here at Eagle's Landing!

Everyone enjoyed TEAM TUESDAY where they showed off their pride for their favorite teams. Soccer, baseball, football and more were some of the sports represented.

On Wednesday, campers stayed cool with our Special Day, WACKY WATER DAY! Campers enjoyed many fun filled activities. They loved the water slides and awesome games and activities they were able to participate in. Everyone was soaked and couldn't be happier! The sixth, seventh and eighth graders took a trip to Sahara Sam's Water Park which was a blast too!

Thursday everyone came ready for our CAMP T-SHIRT DAY! Such awesome camp spirit was seen in all of the divisions.

This week in Tribes, there were so many fun activities that the campers participated in to earn points. Kiddie Kingdom played Ball Throw and went on a Bean Bag Hunt. First and second grade did a Sponge Squeeze Relay. Third, fourth, fifth and sixth played Aye Aye Captain. Seventh and eighth grade played Noodle Snap Tag. LITs played Giant Connect 4. CITs played Tug of War and did a Dizzy Bat Relay. Everyone cheered their team on as they watched. Congratulations to the winners, the DELGANS! Let the competition continue. We're all looking forward to another fantastic week.

SPECIAL EVENTS

This week's Special Day was Wacky Water Day, a camp favorite! The campers and staff got to stay in their bathing suits all morning as they played wet and wacky games. There was even a special visit from the Monmouth Junction Fire Department where the campers and staff got sprayed with the giant fire hose to start off their Special Day! Kiddie Kingdom campers had a Spray Park Dance Party, participated in a Sponge Squeeze Relay where everyone got wet and even washed some cars! The first and second grade campers showed off their creative side with Shaving Cream Art, went through a Scooter Car Wash and tried not to get wet during Bucket Brigade where campers had to pass buckets with holes in them above their heads as fast as they could. The third through fifth grade campers played new Water Day activities which included: BOWLING for Water where campers had to keep a bowl on their head and pass water from one end to the other trying not to spill any, Water Trails where campers had to work together to line up the PVC pipes so none of the water would spill and Flip Flop Fiasco where campers had to balance pails of water using their feet! Wacky Water Day continues to be a camp favorite as new and exciting activities are added to the Special Day each year. Next week's Special Day is "Down on the Farm". What's your favorite farm animal?

- Shira, Special Events Coordinator

Fitness

We had an absolutely FUN-nominal week at the Ninja Warrior elective! We crawled, balanced and weaved through six different obstacles on our newly created course. This week first through ninth graders had the chance to be Ninja Warriors as they challenged themselves physically and mentally. Crazy snakes, star jumps, tire flips and partner work were all seen throughout the week. Watch out world, these Ninjas are coming for you!

- Sarah, Fitness Instructor

BKD HAS HAD A BLAST!

BKD had such a wonderful time at camp this week! Derek Levine loves playing with the animals in Nature. Shamoil Bootwala had a blast swimming in the Froggy Pool. Making the Earth out of Play-Doh in Mad Science was definitely Jared Mondesir's favorite activity. Rishil Anne loves to drive the Monster Truck to different imaginary destinations! Christian Marks is a superstar Ga-Ga player. The professional artist of the group is definitely Caleb Marshall. Making superheroes in Ceramics made Logan Bennett feel like his own superhero! This week was a blast for BKD. We can't wait for week four!

- Emily, Counselor & Amanda, Junior Counselor

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Wacky Water Day left us all soaked, but that couldn't put a damper on our week! Kiddie Kingdom made some fish friends to swim through week three with. Even our third grade boys were treading with their origami koi fish! Girls in grades two through four explored decoupage as they created things from headbands to treasure boxes. The campers who chose Arts and Crafts electives created their own masterpieces from mess. Campers and counselors can't wait for some furry fun next week!

- Elaine, Arts and Crafts Instructor

B2B IS BLASTING OFF WITH FUN!

Another great week is down for B2B. Adam Kamel was a great listener during Mini Golf and played his best on the course. Aiden Hansen and Noah Austein enjoyed Free Swim so much! Kyle Cirillo-Spalding and Michael Englert had a ball during clubs and loved playing their favorite game, "Rush Hour." Roman Tutela had a great time in Mad Science. Samuel Kaplan was joyful and enthusiastic when we went to Arts and Crafts. These boys can't wait for another week of fun at Eagle's Landing Day Camp!

- Bobby, Counselor & Chris, Junior Counselor

The MEGnificent Shishkabobs of G3B

Week three came and went and the "MEGnificent Shishkabobs" had so much fun. Every day is such a great experience with the girls and it's the best feeling to have such an amazing group. Zoey Aleixo enjoyed going to the Ropes elective climbing up and going back down on the zipline. Nina Lozito got to help put together a key holder in Woodshop. Aditi Sundar had a blast in Baking making pumpkin muffins and cinnamon roll bites. In Tools 'n' Tech, Leah Angelo took apart a laptop and pried open the metal to see what was inside. One of Sophia Demarest's favorite activities is Ga-Ga where she had so much fun. Emily Wyand had fun at Ropes where we were tasked with the challenge of getting all of the girls from one island to the other using two planks. During the Mad Science elective, Jolie Salamon loved making a wind-up toy. During Tribes, Sophia Vriesendorp played an intense game of "Aye Aye Captain". Ella Weber had fun playing games in Computers. Her personal favorite is Roblox. Emmie Fleming went to the Nature elective where she decorated shirts and put on makeup to walk around camp looking like a zombie. In Tennis, Isabella Rubino showed off her amazing arm when trying to hit targets on the court. Overall this was another fantastic week and we can't wait for the rest of the summer with our little Shishkabobs!

The Girls of G7A

G7A has had an awesome week and settled into the groove of things here at Eagle's Landing as week three comes to an end. Stacy Rappolt had an awesome week exploring Digital Photography and swam like a fish in the Pool. Hannah Cadoff and Jessica Miner tore up the court in Basketball while Maddy Cohen and Mia Fleming were busy zipping down the zipline. If you're feeling a little hungry, make sure to ask Morgan Lee about the cinnamon crumb cake muffins she made in Baking. Annette Greenberg made delicious potato boats in Cooking. Brooklynn DuBois, Sara Birns and Faith Elliott-Diaz practiced their bumping and setting skills in Volleyball. Miranda Byszynski and Jianyi Chen worked on their target practice at Archery. Leah Flanders and Sophia Haluska were Soccer superstars and helped the team to a victory! G7A had an awesome time at Sahara Sam's and can't wait for their Stay Late during week four! Stay tuned to find out what's to come for the girls of G7A!

BAKED CORN DOGS

Ingredients:

- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup yellow cornmeal
- 1 tsp baking powder
- ½ tsp salt
- 6 tbsp butter, melted
- ½ cup milk
- ¼ cup honey
- 8 hot dog franks
- 8 wooden sticks
- Mustard and ketchup

Instructions:

1. Preheat your oven to 400° F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper and set aside.
2. Insert sticks through the center of the hot dogs, lengthwise.
3. In a bowl, mix the flour, cornmeal, baking powder and salt until combined.
4. In a separate bowl, mix melted butter, milk and honey until combined.
5. Slowly add the wet mixture to the dry mixture and mix with a wooden spoon.
6. Once everything has been incorporated, knead dough for 2 minutes.
7. On a lightly floured surface, roll dough out to ¼-inch thickness.
8. Place hot dog (with stick already inserted) on the dough and cut a rectangle around it.
9. Wrap the corn dog with the dough and pinch together at the top and bottom.
10. Place on cookie sheet about 2 inches apart.
11. Bake corn dogs for 15-20 minutes or until they start to brown.
12. Serve immediately with ketchup and mustard.

B2C's FUN-nominal Week 3!

B2C had an incredible third week of camp! Frank Gangemi had an amazing time at Ga-Ga learning brand new tricks. Markie Smith killed it on the Ninja Warrior course! Noah Peters had a great time at T-ball with a lot of great hits. On the Trucks, Charlie Kienle loved driving and playing on the X-Wave! Tejas Geria had fun at Tennis. Rocco Cuoco made an impressive snake in Arts and Crafts. On Wacky Water Day, Ryan Weiss was soaked with excitement! Raghav Sambyal was a superb player during Capture the Flag. Luke Ruoff loved playing Bucket Brigade to earn points for his Tribe. Week three is over but there is so much more to look forward to!

- Andrew, Counselor & Matt, Junior Counselor

THE B4C STATE FARMERS

The B4C State Farmers had an amazing third week at Eagle's Landing Day Camp! Sean Aronson and Ryan Austein had a great time in Mad Science. They made colorful slime that they could mold and shape however they liked! Joshua Goldenfarb and Dean Kamel were the best of pals during Ga-Ga, making it to the top five or three on more than one occasion. Matthew Lustgarten loved nothing more than playing Wall Ball with his fellow campers. Justin Lustgarten enjoyed and excelled in games of Soccer. Alex Naumov and David Shenker had a stellar time at Wacky Water Day and always showed excitement for the next activity. Evan Taistra had a blast at Mini Golf, always aiming to get that hole in one! James Tomasini set up shop in Woodshop and made sure all his pieces were sanded down and ready to make the best project possible. Jack Shaunnessey was a real baller during Basketball, always aiming to be the best on the court. Week three was a productive week for the B4C State Farmers and we can't wait to see what the following weeks have in store for us!

- Jake, Counselor & Zach, Junior Counselor

G1B BLUE FURRY TROLLS

Here at Eagle's Landing Day Camp, the girls of G1B had another great week! We have been having so much fun at all of our activities. Marluz Santiago showed off her Scooter skills. Isabell Walcott made a bunch of great shots at Basketball. Caylee Inselberg learned how to make a birdfeeder out of a bowl in Nature and had a lot of fun decorating it. Gianna Calle made a lot of glow in the dark initial jewelry. Ava Parikh has become really great at underhand throwing in T-ball. Jillian Watson built an awesome castle in Lego Land. Sophia Coppolino learned more of the group dance and has been doing an awesome job with it! We had a great time this week and are looking forward to the next one!

- Jillian, Counselor & Sabrina, Junior Counselor

G5A is Loving Camp Life!

Week three was fantastic for G5A! We had our Stay Late on Tuesday and our girls really enjoyed it. Olivia Neri had so much fun swimming after hours with the fifth and sixth grade girls! Sarah Lee had a blast in the sand playing a division-wide game of Nukem. Savannah Newman enjoyed the division-wide game of Ga-Ga. During our newspaper fashion show, Rachel Goldenfarb rocked the stage in her outfit! Maya Davis liked making gooey s'mores at the end of the night. In Archery, Jessica Zevon hit a bullseye! She was congratulated with an awesome bullseye pin. Rose Rykus crossed some of our high elements at Ropes! Ava Masiuk and Lauren Goldenfarb had an awesome time using their creative minds in Cooking. During Iron Chef, Ava made a beach scene and Lauren made a cupcake out of some of the ingredients! Alexis Gurevich's favorite part of Baking was being able to mix all of the ingredients together to make oatmeal blueberry muffins. At the Ceramics elective, Lily Kelly made a beautiful project using clay and stencils! Sarah Pennock had so much fun in Arts and Crafts where she made a jewelry hanger for all of her accessories! G5A had such a great week. We never want the summer to end!

- Amanda, Counselor & Olivia, Junior Counselor

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE

The third and fourth grade boys and girls have had an incredible first three weeks of camp! During Division Leader Time we had so much fun learning about each other with Ice Breakers, a camp Scavenger Hunt with an Aladdin theme and other original games. We loved the activities on Ship to Shore Day during week one, training with the Marines on American Hero Day during week two and flying down the special water slide on Wacky Water Day this Wednesday! The girls loved their week two Stay Late where we swam, ate delicious French bread pizza for dinner, used teamwork during "The Amazing Race: Eagle's Landing," played various field games and finished the night with s'mores at the fire pit. The boys rocked their week three Stay Late with an extra swim, a specially made dinner, intense games of Kickball and Prison Ball, a team-building round of Capture the Flag and s'mores for dessert. Our third graders are super engaged in their new freedom to choose electives. The fourth graders have been great leaders for their new, younger friends. We are especially excited about the new high Ropes course and American Ninja Warrior!

Middle Camp's first three weeks were just the beginning of this FUN-nominal summer. With many more Special Days and Division Leader Time activities, two more Stay Late nights and new friendships to build, there's so much to look forward to! As we move toward the second half of the summer, we'd like to remind our camp families that personal toys and balls should remain at home (we have so much to do here already!) and that all personal belongings should be labeled to avoid misplacing things. We are truly the best division ever, so thank you so far to the campers, counselors and families for a great start!

- Justin & Julie, Division Leaders

Rocketry

What a blast we've had in Rocketry! We started off with model rockets for all electives. We assembled, decorated and launched them into the sky. We have also been working on custom paper planes that we could test the distance and height of when they are flown. Most recently, we started to work on white wing planes which are awesome realistic models of planes. We are looking forward to meeting new and returning rocketeers very soon!

- Dana, Woodshop/Rocketry Coordinator & Nick, Assistant

THE KITCHEN

The Blue & White Tent is a happening place with fun, laughs and music during lunch. When we're not eating lunch, we have variety shows, games and afternoon ice cream snacks. As week three comes to an end, the changes to our menu for 2017 have been a huge hit - especially the Chicken Fries!

- Brian, Food Service Coordinator

BKC's Wacky Week

BKC is having a FUN-nominal time at Eagle's Landing! Chase Verderami loved playing Mini Golf. He got so many holes in one that we couldn't keep track! Brayden O'Brien made such an awesome superhero logo in Ceramics. Colin Dever showed off how far he could hit the ball at T-ball! Evrett Revolinsky really enjoyed creating his own fish in Arts and Crafts. Haydon Miller really enjoyed Swim and Lego Land. Lucas Balint loved washing the cars on Wacky Water Day! Travis Levin had a great time playing "Drip, Drip, Drop". Ryan Englert enjoyed himself at Basketball. He kept getting the shots in! We can't wait for another great week with BKC!

- Katie, Counselor & Britney, Junior Counselor

B8A's Fantastic Fun Continues

The eighth grade boys have continued their amazing start and came together for a very successful and fun third week of camp! Matthew Bransky overcame a very tough Mountain Biking trail and won a game of Ninja with the bikers afterward! In our group Kickball game, Artem Korotonozhkin showed off his strong foot by blasting his kicks. Brandon Weber flashed some great defense as he robbed his friends and counselors many times in Kickball. Ryan Kovacs had a great time at Basketball making some very creative shots and soaked up the sun in the Pool. Billy Peters and Lex Demarest were hockey stars scoring multiple goals for their team and leading them to victory. In Baking, Matthew Mahler made some amazing crumb cake muffins and played some competitive Ga-Ga games with the group. Daniel Mahler had a great time doing everything from Pool games to playing Basketball. On the new Ropes course, Dylan Newton had a fantastic time on the zipline, riding nonstop! For our teambuilding games, Billy Zhang and Nicholas D'Aloia did a great job being guides for their partners and helping lead their teams to victory in a game where communication and teamwork were key! Josh Webber enjoyed the Wave Pool and Water Slide at Sahara Sam's on our Wednesday trip! The boys have been making the most out of the camp season so far by building and growing friendships and having fun doing every activity there is to offer!

- Steven, Counselor & Neal, Junior Counselor

MUSIC

This week in Music we have been learning about rhythm by having fun playing drums and tambourines! We played a game where we listened for the difference between fast and slow beats, echoed rhythms we heard and even learned to make animal footstep sounds with our own drums! We also sang songs like "Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes" and "Wheels on the Bus." We can't wait to see what adventures are in store next week in Music!

- Jackie, Music Coordinator

Coffee Cake Muffins

Ingredients:

- 1½ cups all-purpose flour
- ½ cup Imperial Sugar Light Brown Sugar
- 2 tsp baking powder
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- ¼ tsp baking soda
- ¼ tsp salt
- ¾ cup milk
- ⅓ cup canola oil
- 2 large eggs

For the crumb topping:

- ⅓ cup Imperial Sugar Extra Fine Granulated Sugar
- ⅓ cup Imperial Sugar Light Brown Sugar
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- ¼ tsp salt
- ½ cup (1 stick) unsalted butter, melted
- 1½ cups all-purpose flour

For the glaze:

- ¼ cup confectioners sugar
- ½ tsp vanilla extract
- 1 tsp milk

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 375° F. Line a 12-cup standard muffin tin with paper liners or coat with nonstick spray; set aside.
2. To make the crumb topping, combine sugars, cinnamon and salt in a medium bowl. Whisk in melted butter. Add flour and stir using a rubber spatula just until moist. Spread out mixture on parchment paper to dry until ready to use.
3. In a large bowl, combine flour, sugar, baking powder, cinnamon, baking soda and salt.
4. In a large glass measuring cup or another bowl, whisk together milk, canola oil and eggs. Pour mixture over dry ingredients and stir using a rubber spatula just until moist.
5. Scoop the batter evenly into the muffin tray. Sprinkle with reserved crumb topping, using your fingertips to gently press the crumbs into the batter. Place into oven and bake for 15-17 minutes, or until a tester inserted in the center comes out clean.
6. To make the glaze, combine confectioners sugar, vanilla and milk. Whisk until smooth. If the glaze is too thin, add more confectioners sugar as needed.
7. When the muffins are done, cool for 10 minutes and drizzle the glaze on each muffin.
8. Allow glaze to set before serving.

- Taylor, Baking Coordinator & Callie, Instructor

B6C's Awesome Third Week

The third week of camp at Eagle's Landing for Group B6C was fabulous! Miles Feldman had an especially good time at his Computers elective and was ecstatic to get his deep water band so early in the summer. Brady Powell had a great time in his Cooking and Baking electives. Paxton Furr had loads of fun making his way through the obstacles part of the high Ropes course. Nicky Todd also loved doing this course and had fun in his Coding and Drones elective. Zev Sharlot had an amazing time in the zombie-fied Nature elective and in Coding and Drones. Paul Comaianni showed off some of his phenomenal Ga-Ga skills and had a blast playing goalie during the World Cup Soccer game. Liam Sobolewski had a great time in Drama and participating in challenging group activities by the Ropes course. Group B6C traveled to Sahara Sam's on Wednesday, which is an incredibly fun indoor water park! All the kids had a blast. Group B6C has had a great summer so far and everyone is excited for more fun to come!

- Jordan, Counselor & Matt, Junior Counselor

B2a's Slammin' Week 3!

The B2A Brawlers are having an amazing summer. Hanson Cao had a blast at Fantastic Fun trying to take everyone's flags and making new friends. Kanishk Mogha loved being in a bubble at Mad Science. Max Mayer showed off his drawing skills in Arts and Crafts and showed who the real Picasso is. Rafael Sharlot and Shiv Patel have been practicing for the Ga-Ga finals all week! Mikey Satchell loved the ravioli he made in Cooking and loved showing off his Iron Chef skills! AJ Coppola had a ton of fun at T-ball whacking homeruns left and right. Giovanni Cuoco was excited about playing the drums in Music. Nihaal Anne showed everyone his Soccer skills. He's becoming the next Messi! B2A can't wait to see what excitement the rest of the summer brings!

- Loren, Counselor & Omar, Junior Counselor

WEEK THREE FOR G7B

This week, Jessica Kenny and Emma Regen had a ball playing Ga-Ga with our group and other campers. Abby Diamond went to Archery and was super excited to wear her "I shot a bullseye pin!" At Computers, Carly Drobbin took photos with a Go-Pro all over camp! Samantha Alter boogied and got groovy during Dance Dance Revolution. Brooke Zevon carved and created a wooden Minion in Woodshop during electives! Melissa Eatroff baked mini crumb cakes in Baking that were delicious. Sarah Masiuk and Rebekkah Taistra enjoyed playing Volleyball with our group and G7A! Elyse Nadelman made potato skins and mashed potatoes in Cooking. G7B is excited to be with so many wonderful campers! We can't wait for the rest of summer!

- Sarah, Counselor & Sydney, Junior Counselor

The B6B Boys Had a Blast

The B6B Boys had a fantastic week three at ELDC. Harrison Lollin had a great time playing Tennis Baseball with his counselor and friends. Oskar Bayazitov enjoyed taking a short bus ride to catch some fish with the Fishing elective. Michael Costagliola was very excited about passing the deep water test. Steven Koshy had a blast playing Ga-Ga. Shaurya Sarma had a fantastic time at electives and loved spending time with his fellow campers. Sebastian Tutela enjoyed the Wednesday trip to Sahara Sam's. The B6B Boys had a great thid week!

- Josh, Counselor & Matt, Junior Counselor

T-BALL & TENNIS BASEBALL

This week Tennis Baseball and T-ball have been knocked out of the park! From kindergarten all the way up to ninth grade, every camper has been served a great deal of knowledge for the game of Baseball. Campers in kindergarten to second grade have been learning how to hit and throw during their T-ball classes. In third to ninth grade, they've been learning how to crush Tennis balls during Tennis Baseball. We're so excited for the rest of the summer and can't wait to see the campers develop into real ball players!

- Kyle, T-ball & Field Games Instructor

THE B4A "EAGLE'S WINGS OF FURY"

The B4A "Eagle's Wings of Fury" had a great third week of camp! We had so much fun welcoming Agguth Reddy and Armaan Nashine to camp. They both loved playing Ga-Ga and choosing their electives. Andrew Donovan and Aarush Pawar showed their creative talents in STEM where they built very high buildings. Dylan Belsky and Ty Hecht were leaders in Ropes. They were able to complete every task like superheroes. Dominic Furey and Ryleigh Lato had a blast at Wacky Water Day. They couldn't get enough of the water slide. We can't wait to see what week four has in store for us!

- David, Counselor & Zach, Junior Counselor

seventh and Eighth Grade

Greetings from Upper Camp! Every day at ELDC you can find our seventh and eighth graders having fun together. Whether they are working up a sweat at Field Games or Basketball, exploring ideas at STEM, deconstructing technology at Tools 'n' Tech or creating sweet treats at Baking, you can always find our campers having a blast.

Our talented performers are working hard preparing for the Upper Camp Show, Shrek the Musical Junior. Come see them on stage August 16th.

We had fun on our field trips too! We've enjoyed the ocean and the boardwalk at Point Pleasant Beach, experienced the wild life at the Philadelphia Zoo and splashed our way to fun at Sahara Sam's Oasis Water Park. Our eighth graders took a step back in time at the retro Silver Ball Arcade in Asbury Park, bounced around at Air Trampoline and had an awesome time going bowling.

More travel fun is to come as we take in a New York Liberty Basketball game at MSG next Wednesday, July 19th and head to Liberty Science Center in week five. Remember your ELDC t-shirts for travel days! Also, please note that our girls Stay Late is next Tuesday, July 18th and our boys Stay Late is Wednesday, July 19th. It's been an excellent three weeks for all of our campers in Upper Camp and we are excited for what the rest of the summer promises to bring!

- Sue & Dan, Division Leaders

BKE'S FANTASTIC SUMMER!

BKE is having a FUN-nominal summer at Eagle's Landing! Parker Green was amazing at shooting hoops in Basketball. Manny Salgado was a champion at Ga-Ga! - Amanda, Counselor & Olivia, Junior Counselor

B6A is Awesome!

We can't believe week three has already come to an end for B6A. This past Wednesday all of the campers had a blast at Sahara Sam's Water Park as they zoomed down all of the slides. Under the Ping Pong and Foosball tent, Evan Maruyama was a pro and showed awesome sportsmanship while playing the games. Sliding the pucks down the shuffle board court was where Brady Farabaugh showed off his profound skills. Donovan Man showed great interest at Tools 'n' Tech as he took apart various electronics. Ethan Bennett showed off his massive power shots as he won multiple games of Ga-Ga. In Woodshop, Brandon Walenty had such a great time making two wooden Minions. Dillon Kamis had a FUN-nominal time in the Pool and Spray Park. Jack Altman had a blast soaking it up at Sahara Sam's. With great precision, Sebastian Sherry was able to hit a hole in one in Mini Golf. Week three was fantastic! Let's see how awesome week four will be!

- Evan, Counselor & Matt, Junior Counselor

G3A "Peace"

"G3 Peace" has had an amazing third week of camp! G3A continues to enjoy all the activities that ELDC has to offer! Amanda Seidler and Grace Shin enjoyed Drama as they have been getting ready for the upcoming show. Eden Winston had a great time during Instructional Swim learning new swimming skills and playing fun games! Caitlin Kienle had a blast in Cooking making Oreo chocolate popcorn! Gabby Supan and Zoe Liberman did a great job working together in STEM using popsicle sticks, tape and a plastic cup in order to make a catapult. Taylor Mitchell had a great time during Free Swim playing with friends. Ava DeSimone had a great time make a collage with paper and mod-podge in Arts and Crafts. During Free Swim, Clodagh Peduto showed the lifeguards her great skills and passed the deep water test. At the Ropes course, Dedeepya Tadapaneni and Ally Beckman zipped down the new zipline. G3A can't wait for the upcoming weeks of camp together!

BKB AND THEIR FUN-NOMINAL WEEK!

BKB has been having so much fun at ELDC! We can't believe it's already week three! Jackson Elefante and Gil Fadida showed off their skills at Mini Golf. Lukas Ftikas had an amazing time dancing with the rest of the group while we learned our Show dance. Wyatt Giglio helped to teach all of his friends in BKB how to play Ga-Ga! Alex Katz and Dillon Klimcsak made rocket ships that flew so high they almost touched the sun! Jax Parikh and Elliott Smith were hitting homeruns during T-ball. Dylan White and Brian Yepes made super cool aliens during Arts and Crafts! Saahil Zemse and Aiden Zhong made a big splash in the Pool and loved to slide down the Frog Slide! We can't wait for another FUN-nominal week with BKB!

The G3C Eagle Girls

The G3C Eagle Girls had an awesome week three at camp! We started off with Computers where Kimi Zhong beat all levels of Angry Birds. Zahabiyah Bootwala and Diya Balasun enjoyed making pumpkin chocolate chip muffins in Baking. Sayali Vinod, Victoria Hunter and Stephanie Salpeter had so much fun during Cooking where they made delicious Oreo chocolate popcorn. Juliana Williams and Kiera Longo did a great job leading the game of getting over the "island" during Ropes. They helped everyone get over using awesome communication skills. Free Swim is always a favorite for Maya Hari. She loves splashing her counselors! Sophia Ilnitskyy enjoyed singing, dancing and acting as she prepares for the Drama Show. Week three was full of great memories and we can't wait for next week!

Come back to camp for a night (with no kids)!

You've asked for a "parents only" event and here it is! We'll have swimming, shuffleboard, ga-ga, ping pong, basketball, mini golf, corn hole and tennis baseball to name a few activities. Our new zip line and archery will be open too! Enjoy a camp BBQ and cook smores over a campfire. BYOB (we will even supply the ice and cups!)

Friday, July 21, 7-10:30 pm
$25 per person in advance
$30 per person at the door
(bring your friends)!
