"A One-of-a-KIND Summer"

Week 3

Another One-of-a-Kind Week at Eagle's Landing!

Camp is in full swing and everyone is having such a wonderful time. Everyone is having a fantastic summer here at Eagle's Landing - Campers and Staff included!

We all enjoyed SILLY SOCK DAY by showing off lots of unique socks. We saw socks decorated with pizza, donuts, mustaches, dogs and many many more.

Tuesday, everyone came ready for our CAMP T-SHIRT DAY! Such awesome camp spirit was seen in all of the divisions.

On Wednesday, campers stayed cool with our Special Day, WACKY WATER DAY! Campers enjoyed many fun filled activities. They loved the water slides and awesome games and activities they were able to participate in. Everyone was soaked and couldn't be happier! One of the highlights of the day was the fire truck hose spraying everyone in the field! The sixth, seventh and eighth graders took a trip to Quarry Swim, which was a blast too!

On Thursday, we had Go Green Day. We learned all about ways we can become more environmentally friendly!

Friday was really cool as we saw our campers dressed as Athletes and some as Mathletes.

We also had three Overnights this week! Girls in grades 3 and 4, Boys in grades 5 and 6 and Girls in grades 5 and 6 each got to spend their own night at ELDC. They enjoyed an evening swim, s'mores, some fun field activities and a movie before falling asleep. We're all looking forward to another fantastic week.

The winner of Tribes this week was the ELDINGS! Good luck to all of the tribes as the summer continues!

- Chrissy, Newsletter Editor

SPECIAL EVENTS

This week's Special Day was WACKY WATER DAY, a camp favorite! The campers and staff got to stay in their bathing suits all morning as they played wet and wacky games. There was even a special visit from the Monmouth Junction Fire Department where the campers and staff got sprayed with the GIANT fire hose to start off their Special Day! Kiddie Kingdom campers had a Spray Park Dance Party, played Drip, Drip, Drop, a wet spin on Duck, Duck Goose and even raced Pool Noodle Boats! The first and second grade campers got to wash some cars, participated in a Sponge Squeeze Relay where everyone got wet and tried not to get wet during Bucket Brigade where campers had to pass buckets with holes in them above their heads as fast as they could. The third through fifth grade campers played Water Day activities which included Bowling for Water - where campers had to keep a bowl on their head and pass water from one end to the other without spilling any. Another game was Water Trails where campers had to work together to line up the PVC pipes so no water would spill and Flip Flop Fiasco where campers had to balance pails of water using their feet! Wacky Water Day continues to be a camp favorite as new and exciting activities are added to the Special Day each year.

Next week's Special Day is Virtual Reality Day, where all of the activities will be based on popular video games and apps.

- Shira, Special Events Coordinator

ARTS AND CRAFTS

What an exciting third week at camp in Arts and Crafts! This week our campers worked on making projects using decoupage, buttons and their own creativity. Our Kiddie Kingdom campers made some colorful fish swimming in the ocean, while our 1/2 campers made animals using flower pots and decoupage headbands and snakes. Our 3/4 campers had a blast making Paper Mache bowls, mason jars, signs and notebook covers. Our 5/6 and CIT campers really used their creativity in making "a masterpiece from a mess." The 5/6 campers also had the opportunity to make their own jewelry hanger and button tree. Our 7/8 campers had a lot of fun making their own mosaics and Zen stones. All of our campers had so much fun this week using their creativity to recreate some of their favorite things. We cannot wait to see our campers again next week to create even more creative and One-of-a-KIND projects!

COME VISIT US AT CAMP!

We'd love to see you and so would your campers!

VISITING HOURS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays:

9:30 - 3:30 pm

Wednesdays: 1:00 - 3:30 pm

Please remember that there is no visiting the last week of camp, on rainy days and during special event days.

Fitness

Fitness, Fantastic Fun, Ninja Warrior All Wrapped in One! It's been a great 3 weeks for Fitness, Fantastic Fun and Ninja Warrior! Kiddie Kingdom boys loved using their Jedi skills to play Star Wars Tag. Kiddie Kingdom girls loved being Princess Elsa and Princess Anna to play tag and freeze their friends! There were lots of smiles on the field! First and second grade boys continue to have a blast in the Ninja Warrior course. They loved using their Ninja Warrior muscles to balance, jump, zig zag and crawl through the many obstacles. First and second grade girls loved playing Danish Kickball. They loved kicking the ball far and running the bases. The addition of over-under-over-under in the field was a hit as well!

Middle and Upper camp had an amazing time during the Spartan Tire Challenge. There were tons of relays that included pulling a tire, rolling a tire and flipping a tire. Middle and Upper campers are true Spartans. The fun continued in week two as the campers began training for a 5k. The heat couldn't slow us down. Shuttle runs and races kept upper camp smiling. CITs did some running as well and were excited for some kickboxing. Week 3 brings a blast of cardio! We can't wait for more fitness and fantastic fun in the coming weeks! Everyone get your muscles ready!

- Michelle, Fitness Coordinator

BKD HAS HAD A BLAST!

BKD had a WATER-ful time at camp especially with Wacky Water day on Wednesday! We welcomed Noah Zernitsky to our group this week and loved watching him play GaGa! He has some serious skills! During Basketball, Brayden O'Brien and Chase Verderami enjoyed making as many points as they could. Joey Napoli loved getting soaked through the Scooter Car Wash! Owen Fama and Wyatt Giglio worked so hard at Ceramics making their superhero logos. Dylan White and Jackson Elefante loved pretending to be in a marching band as they played their instruments so loudly around camp. Joshua Cao had fun making ducks with chalk during Free Time. Lastly, Lucas Balint carefully selected beautiful beads in Art Too to finish making his bracelet. Looking forward to Week 4!

- Katie, Counselor & Julia, Junior Counselor

B2B's BOUNCING WEEK 3!

It was a spectacular week 3 for the boys of B2B! The entire group has been having a blast in each activity. William Altman has been practicing his swimming skills in both Instructional and Free Swim, and is always the first one in the Pool. William Aviner shined bright with imagination and creativity while playing with others on the Trucks. Robbie Gialanella demonstrated his musical talent by keeping the beat funky and fun with the instruments in marching band. Nathaniel Kahan was cruising coolly on the Scooters while creating games for others to play too! Max Lu made fantastic bracelets in Art Too and Mad Science - one of them being a special glow-in-the-sun bracelet! Ari Mastruzzo played on the tablets and used the technology carefully. Jadon Milline has succeeded in the Ninja Warrior course by practicing his skills in balance and agility. Harry Rubenstein continuously excels in GaGa and Sports, as well as swim. Luca Scalora had fun passing and scoring in Soccer this week! Zachary Schneeweis made an art masterpiece in Ceramics by using precise detail and care. Andrew Sether created a highly realistic robot in Woodshop and listened attentively for instructions. We have had a special week 3 and look forward to all the future fun!

- Joey, Counselor & Judah, Junior Counselor

Sparkling Mermaids of G3B

The Sparkling Mermaids of G3B had so much fun this week! Nadr Toor really loved going to Art Too. Allison Diamond really enjoyed going to Art and Crafts. Sadie Valle and Lailah McDonald always love trying out new recipes and enjoyed making tasty treats in Cooking and Baking. Amelia Davis and Olivia Lauritsen liked running around the Wooden Trucks for group time, while Eliza King's favorite thing to do was run around in GaGa. Ceramics was so much fun for Ella Farkas. Going swimming was super exciting for Olivia Lederman. Adrianna Lopez loved spending time with friends at the girls 3/4 overnight. We can't wait for the rest of this ONE-OF-A-KIND summer!

Maddy, Counselor & Emily, Junior Counselor

The Girls of G7A

This One-of-a-Kind summer is flying by, as we have already entered our third week of camp! Adamari Lopez had a blast during Tribes this week, where we played a crazy game of "Whale's Tales." Mia Alfonzetti got a little taste of adventure this week and had a fun time at Mountain Biking. Aniya Fleming and Elle Jedreicich tested their skills on the high course at Ropes. It was a bit scary, but they both tackled the course head on and had fun while doing it! Samara Stein played in an intense game of boys vs. girls Kickball where she had a great time! Stephanie Buttons, Peyton Maniaci and Julia Seto had an amazing time playing football this week, and organized a football team within our group; they even invited me to be their coach (which I happily accepted)! Overall, our summer is off to a great start and we are looking forward to what the future holds for our group!

- Erica, Counselor

CANNOLI CUPS

Wonton Week! This week in cooking we were so excited to see all of the new ways to use a wonton wrapper! If you didn't know, Wonton Wrappers are super versatile! We've made everything from Spinach and Artichoke Dip Tartlets to Baked Mozzarella Sticks and even super Thin Crust Pizza. Here's a recipe for one of our Sweet Cannoli Cups!

Ingredients:

- 1 package of wonton wrappers
- 15 oz of ricotta cheese
- 1/4 cup of cornstarch
- 1 1/3 cup of whole milk
- 1/2 cup powdered sugar
- 1/2 tsp vanilla extract
- 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
- 2 cups mini semisweet chocolate chips

Instructions:

1. In a bowl, slowly whisk 1 cup of milk into cornstarch until smooth and let it sit for 20 min.
2. Transfer mixture into a saucepan and add remaining milk and sugar. Keep heat on medium-low and stir in vanilla, stirring constantly until thick and smooth (7-10 min). Place plastic wrap over and cool to room temperature.
3. In the oven, place wonton wrappers in a cupcake tin forming cups and lightly wet dough. Bake cups for about 10 minutes then let it cool.
4. After the milk mixture has cooled, stir in ricotta cheese and cinnamon.
5. Spoon mixture into wonton cups and sprinkle with chocolate chips.
6. Eat and Enjoy!

- Rachel, Cooking Coordinator & Cailey, Instructor

B2A's One-of-a-Kind Week 3!

Week 3 is here and it has been our best one yet! Danny Addeo showed off his basketball skills by making constant baskets one after another when playing steal the bacon. Matt Zone and Max Zone dominated the car wash during Wacky Water Day to make sure every spot on the car was cleaned and washed perfectly. Conor Polgar showed off his creative side by making a wooden robot in Woodshop. Cooper Silberstein really has a future as an architect because of his lego tower making skills. William Christian made one of the tastiest cheese wontons in Cooking. Jonathan Folly was a ninja when he scaled the Ropes course swiftly and quickly with little hesitation. Gavin Kienle earned the five year award this week and wore his hat proudly everywhere, including GaGa where he won game after game. Isaac Ordiales jumped right back into things by helping to pick out our pet rock, Jeffrey, during nature! This has been an awesome week and we cannot wait to see what the rest of the summer has in store for us!

- Loren, Counselor and Marcus, JC

THE KITCHEN

The Blue and White Tent is a happening place with fun, laughs and music during lunch. When we're not eating lunch, we have variety shows, games and afternoon ice cream snacks. As week three comes to an end, the changes to our menu for 2018 have been a huge hit - especially the Sloppy Joes!

- Brian, Food Service Coordinator

AN INCREDIBLE WEEK 3!

G1B had an unforgettable third week of camp! Abigail Alexio helped her team win in Soccer. She scored many goals for her team and was a superstar at dribbling the ball around. Bisi Sotinwa splashed around in the Spray Park and especially enjoyed going down the Frog Slide in the Pool. Lyla Gafah made a delicious Fruity Pebbles cupcake during Baking, they were so yummy! In Arts and Crafts, Sophie Shmulewitz painted her beautiful flower pot using many different colors and patterns. Esha Hari put on her dancing shoes and smile during Show. At T-Ball, Alanna Kienle hit the ball very far and caught many balls while in the field. Naaya Patel loved learning and playing with magnets during Mad Science. We are so excited for what is going to come during Week 4!

- Maya, Counselor & Alex, Junior Counselor

THIRD AND FOURTH GRADE

G7B HAD A GREAT WEEK!

Group G7B had a blast during week three of camp! We had a serious discussion about pineapple pizza and the girls had tons of fun participating in various activities. Alexis Bershad, Maya Salzberg, and Alexis Gafah all jumped off of the high board - a whopping 15 feet - on the trip to the Swim Quarry! Ava Verderami and Rebecca Altman had a ball hanging out with their friends on the trip. Kaylin Matthews carefully crafted a beautiful project at Ceramics. Natalie Cioch especially enjoyed Drama this week, where she rehearsed to play Charlie in Willy Wonka! Olivia Krawet loved petting the adorable goats (yes, even Medusa). Lauren Carter built a rocket and an awesome wooden plane. G7B is the place to be!

-Sophia Bulbulia, Counselor

B8B's Fantastic Fun Continues

B8B had a great third week at camp. Cian Nolan used his creativity to make his own pencil jar in Ceramics. David Fritsche dominated the GaGa pits. Max Spiller had a blast playing Magic the Gathering. Nicholas Amodio played knockout in the Spray Park staying cool on a hot day. Jack Progebin had fun both hitting the ball and playing knockout at the Batting Cages. Ryan Klauber controlled drones in Computer Coding. Josh Milbrod kicked it out of the park at Kickball. Harrison LaRaia had some close matches at Ping Pong. We can't wait to see more of the boys of B8B in the coming weeks!

- Cameron, Counselor

THE G5A SUPERSTARS!

The girls of G5A had a fantastic third week of camp! Leila Hagins had a blast participating in the Tribal Games activity, "Whale Tails." Keira Rosenzweig got to experience the high Ropes course during her elective! Laney Kenwood made delicious spinach and artichoke dip during Cooking. Brooklyn Kienle worked up a sweat participating in cardio exercises during her Fitness elective! Sarah Levine had so much fun playing hide and seek during Free Swim with the other girls. Maya Baskind joined the Drama Show cast during her first week back at camp, and she received her awesome script! Joanna Lozito had a blast playing on the X-Wave with the rest of the fifth grade girls. The girls had a great time during the Overnight on Thursday. We can't wait for another exciting week here at camp!

- Olivia, Counselor & Anne, Junior Counselor

BKC's Wacky Week

As the 3rd week of camp is coming to an end, the boys of BKC sure had a blast! Starting out on Monday when Ryan Englert was the GaGa king getting all his friends out and winning the game! Aiden Soni loved running around on the playground pretending he was in the movie, Star Wars. In Baking this week, Ryan Shetty loved decorating his cupcake and said eating it was the best part! Krish Patel had a wonderful time at Spray Park with all his friends! Elliott Smith scooted as fast as he can during Scooters. It was mind-blowing! Alex Katz had the time of his life at Nature feeding the goats and going through the Nature Walk! Travis Levin loved playing on the Trucks and using his imagination to play with all of his friends. After running and playing all day, Isaac Osore loved to sit back and play his favorite games on the Tablets! Gil Fadida lead the boys in a Music marching band around the camp and had so much fun! We are so excited to see what week 4 has for our group!

- Amanda, Counselor & Melissa, Junior Counselor

MUSIC

Fa- la-la-la Fantastic Music! The musical talent has been amazing this summer at Eagle's Landing. The 3rd grade girls groups have been singing their hearts out with their favorite tunes in Karaoke. Kiddie Kingdom through 2nd grade has been trying out our new favorite song called Campfire Song Song by Sponge Bob Square Pants. They have also been marching in a musical parade throughout camp. Watch out world, we have some musicians that can really jam! More fun to come in the upcoming weeks.

- Abby, Music Instructor

Cinnamon Toast Crunch Cupcakes

Introducing another camp favorite recipe. The aroma and taste of these delicious cookies is irresistible!

Ingredients:

For cupcakes:

- 1 box vanilla cake mix
- 1 tsp cinnamon
- 1/4 c. cinnamon-sugar
- 1 c. Cinnamon Toast Crunch

For the frosting:

- 1/2 c. unsalted butter, softened to room temperature
- 3 c. powdered sugar
- Pinch of salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1/2 tsp cinnamon
- 3 tbsp. heavy cream
- Cinnamon Toast Crunch cereal, for garnish

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Line cupcake pan with cupcake liners.
2. Prepare cake mix according to package instructions. Add cinnamon and whisk until combined.
3. Fill liners about one-third full with batter. Sprinkle cinnamon-sugar on top of the batter and place a few pieces of cereal on top. Add more batter to cover the cereal. Bake for 15-20 minutes then let cool completely.
4. Meanwhile, make frosting: In a large bowl, combine butter, powdered sugar, salt, vanilla and cinnamon. Beat with a hand mixer until light and fluffy. Gradually add heavy cream, one tablespoon at a time, until creamy.
5. Frost cooled cupcakes with an offset spatula. Top each cupcake with more Cinnamon Toast Crunch, if desired.

- Donna, Baking Coordinator & Courtney, Instructor

B6C's Awesome Third Week

The boys of B6C had an outstanding week three of camp, making each day better than the last! Counselors lead an intense game of Basketball where Jonah Fass, Gavin Lopes and Damani White gave them a run for their money! John Koch practiced his swing in the Batting Cages. Sami Rizvi and Sam Schmeidler perfected their bumping and setting skills at Volleyball. Colin McNulty had a blast at QUARRY SWIM! Jaylen Richard tore up the court in GaGa this week while Aidan Friedman tore apart some old electronics in Tools N'Tech. Mathew Kopolow spent his days alongside the goats at Nature and loved exploring the outdoors throughout the week. With week three coming to an end, B6C is ready to come back next week and make week four better than the last!

- Josh, Counselor & Adam Jr. Counselor

ROCKETRY & TOOLS N'TECH

We came soaring into week 3 making our very own rubber band powered airplanes in Rocketry. The race was epic but there's no telling who won. It was a messy week in Tools N'Tech as we took apart printers. The campers also enjoyed taking apart computers and rewiring the fans for these hot few days we've had. We can't wait for you to see what is in store for week four!

- Nick, Instructor

WEEK THREE FOR B8A

As we wrap up week three, the boys of B8A could not have had a better week! Jacob Baskind was great hitting three pointers at Basketball. Ryan Schreier and Ryan Schultz were killing it during Football - one touchdown at a time. Jack Stoeckel brought home the final touchdown of the game - bringing it to a tie with only seconds to spare. The Dutka twins, Brett and David were found staying cool in the Spray Park while Michael Lopes made his Tribe proud during an intense game of Whale's Tails. Alex Aizley and Andrew Kenny had an awesome time at Quarry Swim, enjoying the luxurious lake and pool. As week three comes to an end, the boys of B8A can not wait to see what the future holds for week four!

- Kyle, Counselor

The B6B Boys' Amazing Week 3

This week was so much fun at ELDC. Peter Coppolino had a blast playing computer games with his friends. Chris Covino and David Farber had a great time at Nature. Jake Ryan had fun being able to cool off while swimming with his friends. Wake Ryan was outstanding in Volleyball by scoring the most points. David Salvesen had a fantastic time at Kickball. JD Simon also had a great time at Kickball by carrying his team to a victory. Jack Rubin did amazing at Tribes by grabbing an immense amount of tails during the Whale's Tail game. Jacob Christian had a good time playing Gaga for the Train Squad. Ryan Maung had a blast making donuts at Baking. Ben Brill had a time playing Ping Pong. Can't wait for next week with these guys!

- Matthew, Counselor & Adam, Junior Counselor

T-BALL & ARCHERY

Campers at T-ball have been launching balls all over the field this week! Everyone has been passing and shooting like pros in Basketball and scoring tons of points. Soccer has had some super impressive goals and has been doing well with focusing on teamwork. The Archery targets are really starting to show some age, as all of the campers have been improving on their accuracy. We're all so excited to keep learning new skills and having a great summer!

- Dylan, Melissa, Alyssa, Ryan and Bebe, Sports Instructors

THE B4A'S ONE OF A KIND WEEK!

B4A's third week of camp has proven to be as fantastic as expected. Armani Camejo and Matthew Aviner continued to explore their love for Drama while rehearsing for the Show. Camren Coller and John Tomasini had an awesome time playing GaGa, showing their skills against each other. Ryan Lin and Max Salzburg enjoyed Cooking where we made mini wonton pizzas. Luke Taras, Jack Reznik and Nate Giglio showed sportsmanship and their love for Archery during this entire week. Philip Neri loved Wacky Water Day! Overall, B4A's third week was a spectacular week to remember from this summer. It is going to be hard to top all of the festivities but we are excited to try!!

- Ethan, Counselor & Logan, Junior Counselor

seventh and Eighth Grade

Upper camp had so much fun starting their One-of-a-Kind Summer. During Week One, the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, along with the LIT's and the CIT's took a trip to Sandy Hook beach, where all campers enjoyed the beach and the famous food trucks. The 8th graders finished the week with a boating trip in Princeton on Friday. Everyone had a blast. Week two started with everyone showing off their mustaches and mohawks on Monday. On Tuesday, we were proud to wear everything Red, White and Blue for July 4. We continued the week battling the extreme heat with a trip to SIX FLAGS GREAT ADVENTURE, where the 6th, 7th and 8th graders had the time of their lives experiencing rides like El Toro, Nitro and Batman-the Dark Knight. The week concluded with a rainy day at the movies. Campers were able to choose between The Incredibles 2, Ant Man or Jurassic World. When not on trips, upper camp has enjoyed numerous electives such as Zip Line, Cooking, Baking and Mad Science - to name a few. Let's just say that there are so many amazing activities and we are anxiously waiting for more fun and memories for the weeks to come!

- Sue and Dan, 7th and 8th Grade Division Leaders

G1A SPARKLY STARS

The girls of G1A had a fantastic week. Kayla Macan loved playing GaGa - rocking the court! Aria Dhruv loved dancing to silly songs in music. Also, Rachel Veltman and Sadie Gural were so excited to start learning the dance the girls will perform, they brought their dancing shoes! Gemma Dinicola was G1A's soccer star this week having a blast playing with her new friends! River Russo thoroughly enjoyed Wacky Water Day! Maya Gialanella made a beautiful necklace with her initials on it. We are looking forward to what next week will bring!

- Amanda, Counselor & Janine, Junior Counselor

BKE'S FANTASTIC SUMMER!

BKE had an incredible and amazing third week at camp! In Arts & Crafts, Ian Cheromushnikov and Yarden Gottlieb built beautiful homes for their Paper Maché fish. Vihaan Pendyala and Vihaan Sooraj had a blast collecting pet rocks on our Nature trail in the camp. In Baking, Jax Butler got to design a scary and delicious monster with rainbow icing and edible eyes. Saahil Zemse and Lucas Loiselle created awesome clay creatures with their skills in Ceramics. Ethan Tan had fun running around with Dillon Klimcsak in the Spray Park playing tag. We are looking forward to the next five weeks of camp and to making more extraordinary memories!

- Hannah, Counselor & Michelle, Junior Counselor

The B4B Rockstars

B4B has had an amazing week 3! Dylan Saypol and Elliot Genge had an awesome time playing Roblox together in Computers. Jayden Williams showed off his skills in Hockey by scoring goals. Ethan Gafah really enjoyed making magnetic slime in Mad Science. Gavin Salgado and Gabriel Greiner both loved giving it their all in GaGa. Sajan Patel liked staying cool in the Pool during Swim. Seun Sotinwa enjoyed going on a Nature walk in the woods and finding types of rocks. Ishaan Thadani loved making some delicious treats in Baking. Douglas Lintner and James Verderami strategized a plan to lift a tire over a very tall pole in Ropes. It has been a great week and we can't wait for the many more to come!

THE BKA ROCKSTARS

BKA had a great third week here at Eagle's Landing! Brandon Moran had an amazing time at Arts & Crafts where he made a fish and painted it with several bright colors. Junior Santiago had an awesome time at the Pool where he has been collecting rubber ducks and chips. He even went in the deep end and slid down the Frog Slide! Sam Cicerale did a great job during our Nature walk, in which he obtained a pet rock and saw deer! Sawyer Aviner had a blast at Ceramics, during which he created his own nature item and traced and designed it! Grant Golinder had a lot of fun showing off his great Music skills to his friends as he danced, sang and played the drums! Jason Nissan had a phenomenal time on the Playground, particularly Tires and Trucks, and he's improving his Ping Pong skills! Owen Rutz absolutely loves playing T-Ball out in the open field with all of his friends! We are extremely excited for more One-of-a-Kind weeks filled with fun with BKA!!

Eagle's Landing Day Camp Operation Backpack®

Eagle's Landing Day Camp has partnered with Volunteers of America's Operation Backpack®. Their goal is to help thousands of homeless children go back to school with the basic supplies they need. These students will receive their backpacks before the first day of school. We would appreciate your donations during Week 4 (7/16-7/20) - there will be a bin set up at camp for campers to fill with their donations. Thank you for helping us give back to the community!
