Volume 6

"A One-of-a-KIND Summer"

Week 7

A ONE-OF-A-KIND Week at Eagle's Landing Day Camp!

Monday we kicked off the week with the 1ST GRADE BREAKFAST and 2ND GRADE STAY LATE. The first grade campers were able to enjoy a special breakfast just for them. It was nice for campers to spend some quality time with their friends, talking and laughing. Campers going into second grade were really excited to stay at camp after everyone left. They especially loved the s'mores! Everyone had a wonderful time.

On Tuesday, which was Band Tee-Shirt Day, we saw campers and staff in t-shirts from bands of all different eras. It was a lot of fun to walk around camp and talk about music all day!

On Wednesday, campers had a blast at ELDC's CARNIVAL, which is one of the most loved days at camp. We all loved the rides, games and special treats. Later in the day was the LIT AND CIT STAY LATE. They were excited to stay at camp for more fun.

Thursday was our Lower Camp Shows. Kiddie Kingdom was singing and dancing as they performed in THE GREATEST SHOW. First and second graders had fun performing in Back to the 80's. Hats off to all performers. You inspired us all with your display of talent! Upper camp went on a Scavenger Hunt in Princeton - so fun!

On Friday, campers came decked out for CRAZY HAIR DAY! What great hairstyles we saw today!

This week in Tribes campers played some awesome games. Kiddie Kingdom, 1st and 2nd graders played Potato Races. Campers in grades 3-8 played Coke and Pepsi. CITs and LITs played Knee Tumbler. The winner this week was the Delcans! The fierce competition continues for week 8!

As next week is our last week, a special thank you to all the counselors, division leaders, specialists, office staff, Ruth Ann, Barry, Brian and Shira and everyone else who helped put together The Golden Eagle each week. Thank you Ilyse for always helping to edit the newsletter and thank you Lee for taking amazing photos each week! We are all looking forward to week eight and making more memories that will carry us until next summer.

- Chrissy, Newsletter Editor

SPECIAL EVENTS

This week's Special Day was CARNIVAL! The long awaited day finally arrived! Every camper from our youngest in Kiddie Kingdom all the way up to the oldest campers who are CITs got to be involved in this awesome day. There was a Giant Game Center under the White Tent that was run by our seventh and eighth grade campers. The Giant Game Center included games such as: giant TWISTER, giant CONNECT 4, giant KERPLUNK, giant Pick-Up Sticks and more. Some of our campers had the privilege of seeing a show! Kiddie Kingdom through fourth grade got to see a Magic Show. Campers asked for more rides/inflatables this year and we answered! There were 7 different special rides brought in for all different age groups. Kiddie Kingdom through second grade enjoyed the Trackless Train, KIDDIE HIGHSTRIKER and the Western Bounce House. Campers in third grade and up enjoyed SOCCER DARTS, a Forbidden Temple Obstacle Course, Backyard Obstacle Course and Vertical Rush Slide. Third through sixth grade campers ran the booths together this year. Different booths seen around camp included SPIN ART, Fishing, Krazy Cans, COKE BOTTLE RING TOSS, Spill the Milk and Jelly Bean Count. Campers favorite booths included Face Painting, Air Brush Tattoos, the DUNK TANK and the Marriage Booth. But wait, there's more! Campers also had the chance to stop by the Blue and White Tent to grab a special treat. They had the choice of slushies, popcorn, cotton candy or ice cream. CARNIVAL is always fun, but it also means that camp is coming to an end. Next week's Special Day is the Drama Shows! Break a Leg to all the performers! We can't wait to see the amazing shows!

The Rockstars of BKD

The boys of BKD had an amazing seventh week of camp! Joey Napoli showed off his dancing skills during the show! Wyatt Giglio loved playing Basketball games in the bunk on our hot day! Dylan White devoured all the Carnival snacks and cotton candy he could get! Jackson Elefante built the biggest tower during Lego Land! Owen Fama enjoyed painting a water color picture at Arts & Crafts! Lucas Balint showed off his creative skills during Art Too where he made a beautiful bracelet! Brayden O'Brien hit a home run during Tee Ball! Noah was a master in Baking when he made delicious cake pops with sprinkles! We are sad to see week 7 coming to an end, but excited to see what week 8 brings!

- Katie and Leena, Counselors

B4A IS HAVING FUN IN THE SUN

B4A's seventh week at camp really showed their enthusiasm during this second half of summer. Matthew Aviner and Marcus Kim loved shooting arrows in Archery. Armani Camejo and Alexander Cruz loved playing Basketball. Aarav Desai and Ryan Lin had a spectacular time at Ceramics! Nate Giglio and Jack Reznik showed their smiles at Computers, with teamwork in every game. Luke Taras had a great time making chocolate cake pops at Baking. Max Salzberg and John Tomasini had fun drawing at Nature, learning about the world around us. While we are sad that summer is ending, we can't wait for all of the exciting days during Week 8!

- Ethan, Counselor & Logan, Junior Counselor

TABLETS

It's hard to believe we are almost at the end camp. The younger campers are still loving working on the tablets. Some newer favorite apps include Fruit Ninja, Dress Up, Star Girl, and Happy Jump to name a few. Campers love working on the Tablets! Here's to a great end to the camp!

- Brandon, Computers Coordinator

6/7/8/9/10 Summer Bash

7th & 8th GRADE

Upper Camp is wrapping up another outstanding summer of fun and friendship! Every day, we enjoy all camp has to offer. You can find our campers creating masterpieces in Art and Ceramics, working up a sweat playing Basketball, Soccer or Mountain Biking, Coding with computers and drones and splashing in the Pool. We've had a busy trip schedule, playing at Funplex, enjoying the beach at Sandy Hook and completing our Scavenger Hunt in downtown Princeton. Our 8th Graders have also had fun on Bonus Trips, learning about technology at the Microsoft Store and exploring art at Grounds for Sculpture. Of course, no summer would be complete without ELDC stay-lates. The boys had a blast at their Stay-Late Olympics and the girls took part in awesome team-building activities at their stay late. It's truly been a wonderful summer with our friends, and we can't wait to do it all again in 2019!

- Sue and Dan, Division Leaders

Arts and Crafts

We cannot believe how fast camp is flying by! This week our campers got creative making projects using duct tape. Our Kiddie Kingdom campers painted with some watercolors and then they pulled back the tape to reveal their initials; what a surprise! Our 1/2 campers used decoupage to make suncatcher jellyfish, while our 3/4 campers used water bottles and sharpies to make suncatcher wind spirals. Our 3/4 campers also had the opportunity to make watercolor glue paintings, bath bombs, dot art hands and duct tape notebooks. Our 5/6 campers made duct tape jewelry boxes, 3D hand pictures, duct tape pillows and even tie-dyed t-shirts using only sharpies and rubbing alcohol. Finally, our 7/8 campers made flip-flops out of duct tape, Instagram coasters and pom-pom trivets. We had so much fun making so many projects with our campers this week and cannot wait to see our campers during week 8 to make even more One-of-a-KIND projects.

- Erin, Coordinator & Becca, Nicole and Haley, Instructors

B6C'S AWESOME WEEK

The Boys of B6C had an outstanding week 7. With only two weeks left, the boys are making everyday count. John Koch had a blast swimming in the Pool on these hot days. Peyton Lawson and Aryan Basetty were giving it their all in a competitive game of GaGa. Damani White enjoyed some inside time playing on the Computers. Jaylen Richard had a blast dunking on the Mini-Hoops during Group Time. Albert Scarmato had a great time playing Volleyball especially when he spiked the ball. Aidan Friedman was amazing at Archery getting multiple bulls-eyes. Braedan McDonald had a wonderful time during his electives. Colin McNulty, Jonah Fass and Sam Schmeidler had a great time walking through all of the games that Carnival had to offer. Looking forward to next week!

- Josh Vick, Counselor & Adam, Junior Counselor

MAC AND CHEESE CUPS

We have had so much fun with Pasta Week! We have explored all of the different pasta recipes from Fettuccine Alfredo to Spaghetti Lo Mein! We cannot believe that this summer is coming to a close but we are so grateful to have one more week with the little chefs of ELDC! Next week in Cooking is Mystery Week! Here is a recipe for one of this week's favorite recipes:

Ingredients:

- Vegetable cooking spray
- 3 tablespoons plain dry bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon butter, melted
- 1 can Campbell's Condensed Cheddar Cheese Soup
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 2 cups rotini or medium shell-shaped pasta, cooked and drained
- 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Instructions:

1. Heat the oven to 400 degrees F. Spray 8 (2 1/2-inch) muffin-pan cups with the cooking spray and lightly coat with 1 tablespoon bread crumbs. Stir the remaining bread crumbs and the butter in a small bowl.
2. Stir the soup, milk, black pepper, rotini and 3/4 cup cheese in a medium bowl. Spoon about 1/3 cup rotini mixture into each muffin-pan cup. Sprinkle with the remaining cheese and bread crumb mixture.
3. Bake for 20 minutes or until the rotini mixture is hot and bubbling. Let stand for 10 minutes before removing the minis from the pan.

- Rachel, Cooking Coordinator & Courtney, Instructor

FUN LOVIN' GALS OF G1C

The girls of G1C had an amazing week 7! Kenzie Haas loved running through the Spray Park with all of her friends. Caitlyn Johnson had a blast at Basketball and made a lot of baskets. Natty Lederman made an amazing wind sock at Nature. Ava McAleer enjoyed hopping around for the potato sack race at Tribes. Mihika Mukherjee loved playing spaghetti and meatballs at Fantastic Fun. Julia Sassine was a true ballerina when she danced to her favorite songs. Olivia Shea made an awesome jellyfish in Arts and Crafts. Sol Wasserman hit the ball extremely far at T-Ball. We can't believe camp is almost over but we're excited for another amazing week!

- Reina, Counselor & Jenna, Junior Counselor

G7A's Sweet 7th Week

Can't believe summer is coming to an end! It feels bitter-sweet. Bellamy Leto tackled the hardest course at her Ropes elective. Adamari Lopez made some delicious cake pops in Baking. In Arts and Crafts, Samara Stein created a notebook with a pocket - very cool! Sienna Mayo had a great time playing Newcomb and swimming with her friends. Julia Seto and Peyton Maniaci had a ton of fun playing Basketball together. Gabriela Ventrice conquered the Acid River, a game that we play on the basketball courts, at our Stay Late on Tuesday with the other campers. Stephanie Buttons, Aniya Fleming and Elle Jedreicich had a blast at the camp's Carnival. We had so much fun and made so many memories together! We have loved every minute of camp this summer and will miss all of our laughs and good times as a group... we have truly had a One-of-a-KIND summer! Looking forward to next week!

- Erica, Counselor

B2B BEATS THE HEAT

Through the muggy heat of week 7—and to nobody’s surprise—the B-2-Brothers have had a blast! Evan McDonald, George Abadiotakis and Ari Mastruzzo played with the baby chicks during Mad Science and even gave them names! Harry Rubenstein and Shae Samtani learned how to play Poly-Pong with the 4th graders during group time. Luca Scalora showed off his culinary expertise in Cooking when we made pasta monsters! Zach Schneeweis ran circles around the Playground during capture the flag and helped B2B win some games! William Aviner zipped through the Ninja Warrior course, as we keep finding new ways to go over, under, through and around it! We’re so sad to see the summer fly by so quickly, but we know week 8 will be one to remember!

- Joey, Counselor & Eytan, Junior Counselor

3rd & 4th Grade Love ELDC!

We can’t believe camp is almost done. Through the past 7 weeks, 3/4’s had so much fun! Week 5, we were excited to stay late. The extra time at camp was really great! We loved Double Dare, Book Bonanza & Carnival special days.

They were so much fun in many ways! Many games played during Double Dare... So many challenges but slime was spared! Book Bonanza events were quite unique. We hope campers found new books to seek! As always, Carnival time flew by, With brand new rides for campers to try! Week 6 ended with our Swim Meet. ELDC proved we can’t be beat! Next week ends the summer, we fear...

But we look forward to seeing our campers next year!

- Julie and Justin, Division Leaders

BKB’s Bright Boys!

The BKB Bright Boys had a great week at camp! Benny Hirsch loved zooming on the train at Carnival! Devan Jadav had a blast splashing underwater for the first time in the Frog Pool! Brian Yepes loved getting face paint at Carnival, and painting his initial. Christian Johnson was the next Van Gogh in Arts and Crafts painting his initial! Owen Stashkevetch was a superstar making baskets at Basketball and Payton Rajan was a master chef in Baking making cake pops! We had so much fun this week and this summer has been such a blast!

- Jayme, Counselor & Alex, Junior Counselor

G3B SPARKLING MERMAIDS

This week at camp has been great for the Sparkling Mermaids of G3B! Jaya Rijsinghani had so much fun showing off her skills at Soccer. Nadr Toor and Sadie Valle had a blast at the ELDC carnival. Olivia Lauritsen and Adriana Lopez had a blast playing on the Wooden Trucks during group time. Olive Lederman’s highlight of the week was going to Art Too. Eliza King and Ella Farkas really enjoyed going to Drama this week to practice the show. Amelia Davis liked going to Ropes and showing her best climbing skills. Lailah McDonald had the best time making pasta in Cooking. We can’t wait for the rest of the summer with the girls of G3B!

- Madelyn, Counselor & Emily, Junior Counselor

The Awesome Boys of B2A

B2A has had an amazing week 7! Max Zone was so fast on his Scooters, we were afraid he might be breaking a speed limit! Matt Zone excelled in our second Camper vs. Counselors Capture the Flag game where he stole the flag right from under our noses! Cooper Silberstein saved the day while playing Newcomb at Volleyball when he brought his team back from the edge of defeat! Conor Polgar and Isaac Ordiales astounded the counselors again when they rebuilt their legendary week 6 skyscraper, but this time bigger and taller! Their coordination and teamwork would be impressive in adults! Gavin Kienle dominated during the stay-late races where he even beat the counselors! Jonathan Folly's precision and dedication in Arts and Crafts is impressive to say the least, nothing short of totally awesome is up to Jonathan's standards! Will Christian is definitely going to go pro with a pitching arm like his! Danny Addeo rocked the Basketball courts, winning 3 games of Knockout in a row! David Aochoa proved his musical skills when he sang "We will Rock You" at Music. We are sad to see the summer end so soon, but we know we will make lasting memories in week 8!

B4B BOYS!

It has been such a great week - we loved Carnival! Dylan Saypol enjoyed playing Roblox in Computers; there are so many adventures! Ishaan Thadani loved making and eating some fantastic cake pops in Baking. Douglas Lintner liked drawing and learning about the world around him in Nature. Ethan Gafah had a blast shooting some arrows in Archery; he keeps getting better! Saján Patel had fun balancing on the "Whale Watch" in Ropes. Gavin Salgado loved staying cool in the Pool during extra swims on the Hot Day Schedule. Kaeson Mayer enjoyed the sphero robots during his Coding elective; he maneuvers them really well! Elliott Genge liked hitting the ball super far in Tennis Baseball. We are looking forward to all of the fun next week!

- Loren, Counselor & Marcus, Junior Counselor

- Reid, Counselor & Matt, Junior Counselor

G5A NEVER WANTS SUMMER TO END!

The girls of G5A had an amazing week here at ELDC full of awesome activities! Maya Baskind had a great time in Arts and Craft. Leila Hagins enjoyed making delicious chocolate chip cake pops during Baking. Veronica Slavinsky made an amazing rainbow dog out of pearl beads in Art Too. Eva Leto had fun at the X-Wave with the group on her birthday! Isabella Loufek had fun playing the Tribal game of the week "Coke and Pepsi"! Laney Kenwood made a beautiful iron bead art with the group in Art. Alyssa Zimmer made fun putty during Mad Science! Jessie Brown had a fun time playing GaGa with the rest of the girls. Joanna Lozito made a beautiful duct tape box during her Arts and Crafts elective! Keira Rosenzweig had fun making an amazing sharpie tie dye shirt during arts and crafts. The girls had a fun filled week and they can't wait for more fun next week!

-Amanda, Counselor & Anne, Junior Counselor

Cake Pops!

Ingredients:

- Chocolate Cake, prepared
- 2 heaping spoonfuls of Chocolate Frosting
- 2 boxes Premium white chocolate candy melts
- Cake pop sticks
- Sprinkles

Directions:

1. Add cake to a large bowl and crumble until it resembles fine crumbs
2. Add in frosting a little bit at a time until cake is moist and can hold a ball shape, yet still slightly crumbly.
3. Use your hands to incorporate the frosting into the cake crumbs.
4. Scoop out two balls of cake mixture.
5. Roll the mixture into a tight ball and place on a plate; repeat until all the cake mixture has been rolled into balls.
6. Melt 2-4 ounces of white chocolate in the microwave; then dip the tip of the cake pop sticks into the white chocolate and insert into the cake balls about half-way.
7. Freeze for about 20 minutes.
8. Meanwhile prepare all of your decorating supplies by melting the remaining chocolate in a large cup. Make sure you have enough chocolate to completely submerge the cake ball.
9. Remove cake balls from freezer; then, dip cake balls carefully into the chocolate until covered.
10. Let the excess chocolate drip off. Swirl and tap gently if needed.
11. Add the sprinkles while the chocolate is still wet. It will harden quickly.
12. Stick the decorated cake pop into a styrofoam block to finish setting; then, place into the freezer to speed up setting time.
13. Cover with a clear treat bag & ribbon for gift giving, if desired.
14. Store in a cool area in a single layer, in an airtight container.
15. Enjoy!

- Donna, Baking Coordinator & Cailey, Baking Instructor

- Cameron, Counselor

The Perfect little Angels of G3A

The Perfect Little Angels had an amazing seventh week of camp at Eagle's Landing! Camilla Salardino loved designing her own airplanes in STEM. Irelyn Seale enjoyed decorating her hand with paper and paint in Arts and Crafts. Haley Rykus showed us how fast she could climb the rock wall down at Ropes. Sydney Bielecki sang and danced her heart out to some karaoke at Music. Samaria Anand enjoyed playing Newcomb at Volleyball. Lauren Carpenito enjoyed Carnival and all the rides and games that ELDC had for her that day. Nehchal Singh loved playing different games on the Computers with her friends. Mehar Singh really enjoyed tracing different stencils in Arts and Crafts during our group time. Ava Herrick continues to enjoy preparing for the Drama Show. G3A can't wait to come back to camp for the very last week of camp and continue to have fun!

- Gabrielle, Counselor & Emily, Junior Counselor

BKE is Bouncing into Week 8!

BKE had a fun-filled week 7 of camp! Ian Cheromushnikov and Dillon Klimcsak enjoyed making their own cake pops in Baking with chocolate and sprinkles! Running around the Spray Park is this groups' favorite thing to do. Ethan Tan and Martin Bode loved jumping through the water. In Arts and Crafts, Yarden Gottlieb painted with watercolors to create his own work of art. Jax Butler and Vihaan Pendyala always jump from bus to train when we play on the Wooden Trucks. Vihaan Sooraj got to create cookie cutter clay pieces in Ceramics. Lucas Loiselle loved dancing around singing songs in Music! We have enjoyed the past seven weeks, we can't wait to spend week 8 together!

- Hannah, Counselor & Michelle, Junior Counselor

B8A'S WACKY WEEK OF FUN IN THE SUN

It has been another One-of-a-KIND week for the boys of B8A. Alex Aizley and David Dutka had a great time walking around and eating popcorn during Carnival. Jack Stoeckel and Danny Naidrich was integral in his team's success in the Scavenger Hunt in Princeton. Jordan Lacerte was winning game after game in the GaGa pits. Brett Dutka was serving up the aces during Tennis. The boys of B8A are looking to make the last week of camp hands down the best one yet.

- Kyle Reese, Counselor

THE BEST SUMMER EVER FOR BKA

It has been a phenomenal week for BKA filled with sunshine, laughter and fun! Sawyer Aviner had a great time in the Pool where he played "Shark" with his friends! During Nature, Grant Golinder had an amazing experience making his very own binoculars, which he used all around camp! Brandon Moran had a blast at Arts and Crafts where he got to unleash his creative side when he made a personal watercolor painting! During T-Ball, Jason Nissan absolutely loved hitting the ball with the bat and running the bases, he didn't miss once! Owen Rutz had a fantastic time during Ceramics where he got to create his very own little sculpture with clay! During Mad Science, Junior Santiago loved playing with the baby chicks, who he thought were incredibly cute and fun! We can't wait for another great week with BKA!

- Elizabeth & Panthi, Counselors

BASKETBALL

Basketball has been amazing all summer long! This week, we saw how all of the skill drills have paid off. Groups from Kiddie Kingdom improved their skills greatly by playing in fun Relay Races, including passing, dribbling and shooting. The 1st and 2nd graders learned how to master their moves and then demonstrated their talent in some games. We have had nailbiting finishes in Knockout and Sportcenter-worthy dribbling and defense in our Basketball version of Sharks and Minos. The campers have worked so hard and we are now looking forward to exciting 3-on-3 games in our Final Week of camp. Thank you to all campers for a summer to remember!

- Ryan, Basketball Instructor
