Volume 8

#EatCampSleepRepeat

Week 7

Camp Classics Week was Extraordinary!

On Monday, we had the 1ST GRADE BREAKFAST and 2ND GRADE STAY LATE. The first grade campers were able to enjoy a special breakfast just for them. It was nice for campers to spend some quality time with their friends, talking and laughing. Campers going into second grade were really excited to stay at camp after everyone left. They especially loved the s'mores! Everyone had a wonderful time.

Tuesday was Tye Day Tuesday! We saw campers and staff in all different colors of Tye-Dye! Some even wore Tye-Dye from head-to-toe!

Wednesday was CARNIVAL - a true camp favorite! We all loved the rides, games, and special treats. Campers are always so excited for this day! It was awesome to watch campers eat cotton candy, get airbrush tattoos, and ride on the train. Later in the day was the LIT Stay Late. They couldn't wait to stay at camp for more fun.

Thursday was our Lower Camp Shows. Kiddie Kingdom sang and danced in DISNEY REVIEW. First and second graders had fun performing in Camp Toons and All you Need is Love. Hats off to all our mini performers. You inspired us all with your display of talent!

On Friday, campers came decked out for Mismatch Day! No one's clothes matched - not one person!

This week in Tribes campers played Hungry-Hungry-Hippos. The winner of this week's challenges was the LADINGS! The fierce competition continues for week 8! Next week, we also find out who the Tribal leader for each Tribe will be.

As next week is our last week, a special thank you to all the counselors, division leaders, specialists, office staff, Ruth Ann, Barry, Carlen, Hanna, Jordan, and Max and everyone else who helped put together The Golden Eagle each week. Thank you Frankie for all of the beautiful pictures you take each week. We are all looking forward to week eight and making more memories that will carry us until next summer.

SPECIAL EVENTS

CARNIVAL WAS AWESOME!

CARNIVAL is a camp favorite and everyone looks forward to it all summer! We love to see it arrive and we are sad to see it go. Kiddie Kingdom and 1st & 2nd grade loved being driven around the field by Conductor Kevin and Robbie on the Trackless Train. The 3rd and 4th graders enjoyed getting AIRBRUSH TATTOOS and guessing the Staff Baby Pictures. 5th and 6th grade campers had fun getting to fly down the Zipline! Campers in grade 7 and 8 hopped around and tried to make it to the other side at Leaps and Bounds. The LITs devoured the delicious Cotton Candy and the amazing ice cream treats we brought in special for the occasion. Carnival was everything it was hyped up to be and we certainly had a blast! We are sad that it is going to be Week 8 but the fun isn't stopping yet! Next week we have 2 days of TRIBAL WARS on Wednesday and Thursday and we can't wait. We will also be announcing our Tribal Chiefs next week.

7th and 8th Grade

We can not believe how fast this summer is flying by. The summer of 2020 has meant more to us than ever before! The 7th and 8th grade boys and girls have been active and engaged during the past few weeks. They are constantly smiling, laughing, and having a great time at every activity. The 7th and 8th grade boys have claimed "Fish Ball" and "Team Tag" as their games for the summer. From Camp Days to Stay Lates, we are always having a good time and are so happy to be here. The 7th and 8th grade girls had a blast making reverse tie-dye shirts at the Stay Late. If you would like to try this, all you need is a dark shirt and some bleach! With only a week left, we are for sure going to make it the best yet. Stay tuned for some more fun time!

~ Christina, Division Leader and Dan, Division Leader

B4C's Fun-Filled Super Week!

This week was full of amazing challenges and opportunities. Gabriel Dos Santos's showed his athletic skills in the GaGa pit and on the Basketball Court. Benjamin Bruno and Nathan Marx loved their relaxing walk through the woods during Nature. Landon Ricaurte had an intense match of Mini Golf. Broden McGee conquered the High Ropes course with so much bravery. Zakir Mansuri was a coding wiz in Computers. Vincent Sodano got to learn about motors in STEM. This week has been so much fun!

~ Josh, Counselor & Hugh, Junior Counselor & Jacob, CIT & Mackenzie, Shadow & Alex, Shadow

G7A had an AWESOME week!

The girls of G7A have been having an awesome summer! Alyssa Buckwald loved making her pineapple string art in Arts & Crafts! She can't wait to come back next summer. Alyssa Zimmer had a blast on the net during Ropes and is excited to go again. Ava Fertig loved playing "Werewolf" with our division where she was such a funny storyteller. Brooklyn Kienle made a beautiful macrame hanging piece in Art Too and she can't wait to put it in her room. Joanna Lozito loved playing GaGa with her friends and is super excited for next week. Sophia Rodriguez had a fun time playing mermaids at our Stay Late. Zoe Dubois made a mini Shrek in Ceramics and is excited to bring him to life with the glaze. Sophie Kornblum had fun on our vertical spider web at Ropes where she loved working towards completing the special challenge. McKenna Colligan made a black reverse tie-dye t-shirt at our Stay Late and is excited to wear it and match with her friends. Sarah Levine showed off her dance skills when she choreographed her group performance and it was show-stopping. Keira Rosenzweig loved competing with their group in Tribes and is looking forward to our Tribal Days next week. Liana Dos Santos put her chef hat on in Cooking for our Zucchini Pizzas and is looking forward to making more yummy snacks next week. Manali Weller was super excited to try camp's cotton candy at our Carnival and loved the super sweet treats. Veronica Slavinsky shot a bullseye at Archery and is so proud. G7A made tons of memories so far, and we're ready to make our last week count!

Carnival Winners!

Jelly Bean Count Winner: Angelica Mayer - G2B
Baby Picture Winner: B6A

G5C - Hey Eagle's Landing!

G5C had an awesome week of fun. During Soccer, Haley Rykus scored many goals that led to a team victory. Amelia Davis shinned during our Low Ropes Tire challenge. Krista Johnson absolutely loved the High Ropes Course and also made a stunning Butterfly Ceramic. Ciara Van Ness made a beautiful, colorful Papier-mâché jar during Arts & Crafts. Camilla Salardino choreographed our groups performance at Dance that completely wowed our audience. Olivia Lauritsen created an amazing scribble machine during STEM and showed some admirable teamwork skills during our Low Ropes challenge. Adriana Lopez took part in an amazing duet during Dance and also helped at the competition in our Hungry-Hungry-Hippo Tribes Challenge that led our team to victory! We can't wait for so much more fun to come at Eagle's Landing!

~ Gabriella, Counselor & Susan, Junior Counselor

Fitness

We tested our knowledge of workouts and relays by creating our own course. The campers were put to the test when asked to come up with their own obstacle course all by themselves, get it approved, and then finish off the day with completing it. They included Cartwheels, Bunny Hops, Agility, Running, and Basketball as part of the course. Our campers creatively led them to get a nice fun workout in.

~ Allison, Fitness Instructor

An All-Star Super Summer in B4A!!

Summer is flying by for B4A! George Abadiotakis couldn't wait to play some more Nukem. Michael Casella and Justin Spalding showed off their amazing athletic ability in Basketball. William Christian continues to prove that he is an outstanding GaGa player. Isaac Ordiales was absolutely thrilled to take apart some computers in Tools N' Tech. Ayden Pasquale really enjoyed going Mountain Biking with his friends. Owen Quinn made one of the best sculptures we have seen in Ceramics. Joseph Synosky scored a goal on a counselor in Soccer. Matthew Zone really liked building his rocket and showing it off at Rocketry. Max Zone got not 1, but 2 bullseyes in Archery. We are both so very proud of our B4All-Stars and can't wait to spend what time we have left with them! Hope to see everyone next year!

~ Mat, Counselor & Colby, Junior Counselor

The B4-BEST Week of Camp!

Jeremy Shmulewitz couldn't wait to have his cotton candy on Carnival Day. While in Arts & Crafts, Saxton Fredette made the cutest little red ladybug. Rishi Bhadravat was so engaged when learning about heat at Mad Science. On Carnival Day, Shea O'malley couldn't stop laughing while jumping around in the Bounce House. We can't wait for our last week of camp together with our boys!!

~ Elizabeth, Counselor & Allie, Junior Counselor

CARNIVAL CUTIES OF GKA

GKA had an amazing 7th week and they especially loved Carnival day. They played games, ate cotton candy, bouncy house, and a train ride. They were all smiles all day. The girls of GKA also were great during our Disney Review. They danced their hearts out and were smiling from ear to ear. Braelyn Knight had so much fun going down the Froggy Slide and loved riding the train during Carnival. Kira Golani loved the bouncy house as she jumped so high and was laughing the whole time. Eliana Iturbe had so much fun performing in the Show as she sang "Love is an Open Door" and her favorite part of the Carnival were the rides and games. We are sad that camp is coming to an end but are looking forward to a great last week with our cuties.

~ Gianna, Counselor & Victoria, Counselor

G1C Doesn't Want the Summer to End!

G1C had another wonderful week at camp! We started the week off with an exciting breakfast. The girls were able to wear their pajamas to camp and eat breakfast together. Ella Mulhern also loved playing on the Playground with her friends. Madison Haber and Lucy Apostol had so much fun making beautiful bracelets in Art Too. Delany Haas was amazing at Ninja Warrior and showed off her skills. Violet Lasko and Catalina Tricoles were real chefs when we made popcorn at Nature. We can't wait to have another fabulous week!

~ Alex, Counselor & Julia, Junior Counselor

SPORTS

Campers continued to show their athletic skills at Sports. During Volleyball, Nukem proved to be a camp favorite. Prisonball took over the court and Air-o-Sport took over the field during Field Games. Fish Ball is a new game that the older campers enjoyed playing, and the younger ones loved Steal the Bacon at Soccer. Many campers were on target at Archery, popping balloons and hitting playing cards. Next week brings more fun at Sports as we continue using the skills we learned all summer.

~The Sports Staff

B2A's festive week!

It was an amazing week 7 for the boys of B2A! Dylan White and Brian Yepes had a blast playing on the Playground. At Mini Golf, Joey Napoli and Owen Fama showed off their putting skills where they made some awesome shots at each hole. Brayden O'Brien and Caleb Zamolodchikov showed off their fast moving skills as they raced around the track at Go-Karts. Wyatt Giglio and Lucas Balint ran around in a competition of Counselors vs Campers at Soccer. Jacob Yohannan had a blast at GaGa where they played against his counselors. The boys have enjoyed themselves a ton at camp this week, and we know that next week will be filled with just as much enjoyment and fun as every week before!

Rainbow Crispy Treats

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 Tbsp. salted butter, plus more softened for greasing the baking dish
- 1 (10-oz) bag white mini marshmallows
- 6 cups fruit-flavored cereal rings, (Froot Loops)
- 1 (10-oz) bag rainbow mini marshmallows
- 1 (24 oz) package white chocolate

DIRECTIONS:

1. Thoroughly grease a 9 by 13 inch baking dish with softened butter.
2. Add the 4 tablespoons butter to a medium pot over medium heat. When the butter is melted, stir in the white mini marshmallows and heat until they're totally melted. Stir in the salt. Remove from the heat and pour in the cereal, folding gently until it is all combined.
3. Then gently fold in the rainbow mini marshmallows. Press into the prepared baking dish. Let cool completely. Melt the white chocolate according to the package directions. Cut the treats into 12 pieces. Dip half of each piece into the white chocolate and place onto wax paper. Let set and serve.
