G5A's Awesome Week

G5A has had another great week at camp this summer! In Arts & Crafts, Maddy Pope showed off her artistic talent as she painted a sunset for her picture holder. Sophie Shmulewitz was creative and mixed paints to create new colors to use on her project. At Ropes, Dania Koleilat showed her strength when she completed the Ropes course. Sophia Beck and Sadie Gural competed to see who could get through the course the fastest. In their elective, Mad Science, Maya Lane and Anvi Dhavalikar had a lot of fun. They even created a cool air vapor machine. In Survival, Anabella Zappulla enthusiastically hiked through the woods alongside her friends with large backpacks and walking sticks. Another fun elective was Archery where Natalia Gibson, Sophie Shmulewitz, and Avani Pamnani all successfully launched their arrows toward their targets. Julia Sassine and Gracie Sodano love to laugh together. From making funny voices by the GaGa pits to drawing funny pictures on the bus, there is always time for a good laugh. G5A is excited for Week 4 and all the new adventures that it will hold!
