Week 6

Fun in the Sun during Week 6

Time flies when you are having fun! How is it possible that we are entering Week 7?

We started the week with SCHOOL SPIRIT DAY! Rutgers, University of Tennessee, University of Georgia, Princeton University, Penn State University, University of Florida, and NYU were just some of the schools we saw represented around Eagle's Landing today.

Rainbow Day brought us a ton of different colors. We proudly wore all the colors of the rainbow today.

Wednesday was SUPER HERO DAY! Superman, Wonder Woman, The Flash, Iron Man, Batman, Spiderman, and Antman were just a few of the Superheros we saw running around camp today.

Thursday was PUN DAY and we saw some really funny play on words all around camp. Smartie Pants, Holy Cow, and a Ray of Sunshine all crossed my path.

On Friday, we had Yacht or Not and Duck Derby, a camp favorite where campers have to build a boat out of cardboard and duct tape to see who can get the farthest as they try to row it from one side of the pool to the other. Our younger campers participated in some fun relays with inflatables!!

This week in Tribes, the Delcans were victorious! Week 6 was full of melodies as each tribe got to learn their tribal song and chant! Each song and chant leader chose a popular song and then changed all the words to be about their tribe. The song and chat leaders worked hard this week to teach their tribes: Sammi for the Delcans, Malakai for the Ladings, Sydney for the Camdels, and Brittany for the Eldings. The competition continues next week!

It was a SUPER Superhero Day!!

Superhero Day was an AMAZING day full of life-saving heroes. Kiddie Kingdom got to create their own Captain America Shields and after a full day of hero-ing they got to participate in some SUPERHERO YOGA to reset from the day. Our 1st and 2nd graders went to Superhero Academy where they learned a bunch of different superpowers and then made their very own Pipe Cleaner Superheroes. 3rd and 4th graders created super cool Hawkeye Bow and Arrows and got to practice carrying their Thor Hammer (hula hoop and frisbee). Finally, our 5th and 6th graders loved building their very own Leggo Superhero Worlds and turning their counselors into superheroes with full back stories and superpowers.

Everyone was SUPER awesome and we cannot wait to see everyone next week for Time Travel Day.
