Building Lifelong Friends

Week 5

Fun in the Sun during Week 5

We can't believe we just finished Week 5 of Camp! We kicked the week off with Rainbow Day. It brought us a ton of different colors. We proudly wore all the colors of the rainbow. SCHOOL SPIRIT DAY! Rutgers, University of Tennessee, Penn State University, University of Florida, and NYU were just some of the schools we saw represented around Eagle's Landing. The girls in Grades 5th and 6th had their Stay Late on Tuesday too! Wednesday was Artists vs Athletes and grades 7th & 8th trip was to Top Golf. Thursday was FOAM PARTY for lower camp. Campers in 5th and 6th grade went to Liberty Science Center and boys in 7th and 8th grade had their Stay Late and they had so much fun! We wrapped up our week on Friday with DANCE PARTY DAY! Our Tribal winners this week are the CAMDELS! Congratulations! We can't wait for week 6!

~ Melissa, Newsletter Editor

SPECIAL EVENTS

On Artists vs Athletes Day we made some awesome paintings during Ping Pong Painting. This week in Tribes, we had fun Cleaning the Yard and watched our counselors act like cowboys when they helped us with our Hobby Horse Relay. We showed our defense skills during Pool Noodle Tag and made a lot of noise with Balloon Pop Relay. Kiddie Kingdom had fun balancing bean bags on their heads and trying to tag their counselors. There was also a lot of fun at our FOAM PARTY and we danced all day at our Dance Party. We can't wait for next week's B2DEDICATED!

B2D had a super cool week at camp! Nivaan Jasdhaur and Nicholas Lettich were expert chefs at Cooking. Omri Knee and Jack Barron showed their spirit during Tribes. Ethan Kalisky and Aaron Trub showed great sportsmanship in Ga Ga. Nash Becker and Bishop Mayfield showed their expertise in Arts & Crafts. Harry Bryansmith and Jacob Press enjoyed cooling off in the pool. Gavin Beck had a blast in the Playground; Rey Navneet was a genius at Computers. We can't believe summer already half way over, and we have no plans of slowing down!

~ Nichole & Jahn, Counselors & Maia, Buddy

B4Champions

B4C had an absolutely fantastic week at camp! Richie Beck started the week off right by nailing (another) bullseye in Archery! Way to go, Richie! This was a big week of sports which saw Miles Jacobson making plays all over the Football field, Derek Zwillman making a ton of awesome catches at Newcomb, and Anthony Sether having a blast kicking bombs at Kickball. We also loved seeing Ethan Herrera Diaz and Ollie Ordiales having a great time in Nature where they got to roast delicious hot dogs. We also got to see a Lego baseball stadium being built by our new architects, Josh Adler and Daniel Snyder, during their time in Construction Zone. What a week we've had in B4C and we can't wait to do it again for another 3 weeks!

~ Ethan & AJ, Counselors & Sydney, Buddy

B8A'S FANTASTIC WEEK 5

B8A had yet another super fun week at camp! Andrew Sether and Nate Marx showed off their golf game at Top Golf. Conor Polgar and Max Zone felt their chemistry flowing in Flag Football. Robbie Gialanella and Owen Quinn led their teams through various events at the 7/8 Stay Late Olympics. Isaac Ordiales and Ari Mastruzzo got their game on in Tennis Baseball. Michael Casella and Matt Zone displayed some silky sweet moves in Floorball. Nate Kahan and Mason Michaels worked on their teamwork down at Ropes on the Rock Wall. Mason Grego channeled his inner carpenter at Woodshop. We are all so excited to see what the last three weeks of camp have in store!

~ Jacob & Nikhil, Counselors & Matt, Shadow

B6BRINGING THE FUN!

Make way for B6B, we're on a roll! Lucas Balint and Owen Fama gave us a strong start to the week. They looked unstoppable during Ga Ga. Racking up many eliminations and gaining wins. During Hatchet Throwing, Jake Lanza showed off major skills, striking the target multiple times. During Tennis Baseball it was impossible to strike out Antonio Da Silva, especially when he hit the ball right over the outfielders' heads for a double, while Drew Forlander was effective on both sides of the ball, gaining a hit and major defensive plays! Brian Yepes is familiar with being on another level as well, when he improved his skills during Ping Pong. Not only did B6B get to improve in areas, we also got to learn new things! During Coding, Elliott Smith got to try out new software and play different computer games. Tyler Bergmann learned how to cook over the campfire during the Nature Elective. Joey Napoli had the chance to disassemble different pieces of technology during Tools 'N Tech! Spencer Satran had a great time going to Cooking and learning a new recipe to make! In Floorball, Alex Fama couldn't be stopped in the rink, getting past everybody else and scoring a goal for his team! At the Flag Football Elective, Chase Verderami and Nick Snyder got their respective touchdowns, while Nick made an impressive catch for his touchdown, and Chase juiced past defenders from his team's goal line to score. Nick Manna was an impressive goalie during Soccer, refusing to let anyone score on him. Alex Katz was one with nature and enjoyed the nice breeze riding through the trails of Mountain Biking. This week was an amazing one for the group, and there is nothing stopping us from having another great week!

~ Mekhai & Jonah, Counselors & Mitch, Buddy

G5C IS THE PLACE TO BE

G5C has been busy this week! Sophie Abramov and Sarah Cada made it splash at the pool and had endless fun during Free Swim. Delaney Haas and Scarlett Sherief had a blast taking shots at goal and playing with their friends at Soccer. Emma Satterthwaite and Anabelle Shah bravely conquered the Zipline and had nothing but big smiles as they went flying down. Zoe Rubin and Meryl Schmeidler continue to sing their hearts out during Drama Show rehearsal for Frozen Kids. Violet Lasko, Violet Gonzalez, and Audrey Morgenroth continued to make everyone smile with their funny jokes and had a blast at the Spray Park. All the girls had a great time during their Stay Late. We are so proud of everyone and can't wait for the rest of the summer!

~ Emily & Ananya, Counselors

B4A IN ACTION

B4A has continued to charge through the summer with nothing but smiles on their faces! Damian Barreiro was able to make that hole-in-one happen at Mini Golf, while friends Will Sundberg and Vihan Nadiminti built some truly awesome structures during their times at Construction Zone. Leon Silverii had so much fun on the Wooden Trucks throughout the week. Viaan Gupta and Zach Doll had a blast at the Foam Party. We can't believe we have been at camp for 5 weeks, but can't wait to see what the final 3 have in store!

~ Ben & David, Counselors & Tracey, Shadow

B2All In

B2A had an amazing fifth week of camp! David Libin had a fun time playing with friends and Counselors in Spray Park during Clubs. Cooper Satran and Arun Dasgupta both loved playing tag while we were on the Playground. Oliver Bergmann Sengupta had a great time building a variety of things in the Construction Zone. Noah Gonzalez and Daniel Garcia both enjoyed playing with friends during Free Swim. Holden Gaspari and Aidan Howard both had a fun time making bird feeders in Nature. This week was very successful and we cannot wait for another great week!

~ Nick & Mali, Counselors

Rainbow Veggie Pinwheels

INGREDIENTS:

- 8 Flour Tortillas
- 2 cups whipped cream cheese
- 5 tablespoons ranch dressing
- 2 cups red pepper strips
- 2 cups carrot strips
- 2 cups yellow pepper strips
- 2 cups spinach leaves
- 2 cups purple cabbage

DIRECTIONS:

1. Mix together the cream cheese and ranch dressing until thoroughly combined.
2. Spread the cream cheese mixture evenly over the flour tortillas.
3. Leaving a 1" border on all sides, layout 2 tablespoons of each vegetable in rows across the tortillas.
4. Roll up each tortilla tightly. If the ends do not stay shut you can add a little bit more cream cheese to seal. Cut into pinwheels and serve.

~ Erin & Mary, Cooking Instructors

GIBLESSED

G1B had a great week 5! Elaine Snow and Miah Jenkins had the best time at Scooters. They were racing around super fast, it was hard to keep up! Olivia Zwillman had a blast at Ninja. She is an amazing climber! Victoria Jemerson and Remy Safran loved Free Swim. It was hard to tell if they were playing mermaids or if they actually turned into mermaids! Ryenn Gerstman had a lot of fun at Tribes. She loves competing and has great team spirit! Remi Silverii loved DL time. This week we made oo-bleck and she had so much fun playing with it! Olivia Rodriguez and Clara Schiff had the most amazing time at Instructional Swim. We are pretty convinced that they might turn into fish! We had so much fun with the girls this week, and we can't wait to have more fun as the summer continues!

~ Alex & Lex, Counselors

Sports

Campers are loving our sports activities and showing superb sportsmanship. Our Kiddie Kingdomers are getting better at Basketball and Soccer with each week that passes. First and second graders are conquering the warped wall at the Ninja Course, while third and fourth graders are trying to shoot bulls-eyes and aim for playing cards at Archery. Fifth and sixth grade campers have been working on their Volleyball and Flag Football Skills. The seventh and eighth graders are crushing it at Tennis Baseball and Hatchet Throwing. Keep up the spectacular skills at Sports!

~ Vicki, Sports Coordinator

MAKING MEMORIES WITH G3A

Week 5 has been a blast! We can't believe we are already in the second half of the summer. Time is truly flying by! Brinley Bahun and Mila Katsnelson loved zipping down the Zipline! Daphne Ferrier played some intense games at Coding. Jordana Kahan and Karissa Georges practiced for the Drama Show and we can't wait to see them perform. Rosie Patino, Sadie Apostol, and Marni Gurbuz showed off their athletic skills at Soccer. They are gearing up for the Olympics. Emersyn Hewitt enjoyed completing the Ropes Course. Abigail Hardy created exciting projects during her Coding Elective. Ariella Golani had the best time at Ga Ga and became a champion for the first time! Hannah Brevetti made friendship bracelets during DL time with many colorful beads. Michayla Borsuk had a blast in the Spray Park. Alessia Maltabes loved making cinnamon donuts in Baking. They were tasty. We made many memories and cannot wait to see what's next for the last 3 weeks!

~ Samara, Counselor & Jordan, Jr. Counselor

ART TOO

This week has been a busy one in Art Too. So many bracelets: rainbow bracelets, slap band bracelets, paracord bracelets, and superhero and princess beaded bracelets! Our upper campers designed their own word jewelry with wire and stunning earrings with perler beads and even made their own scrunchies. We are the best dressed camp around! Stay tuned for more fashion trends starting right here.

~ Matilda, Arts & Crafts Coordinator

G7BEST GROUP EVER

G7B had an amazing 5th week here at ELDC. Aarya Cozier showed great sportsmanship in Ga Ga. Kenzie Haas and Riley Malvin had a blast playing in the pool during their Free Swim Elective. Dania Koleilat and Aria Dhruv had a wonderful time making yummy sugar cookies in Baking. Brina Ivy showed her awesome skills in Flag Football. Dhriti Vyas, Laura Kosjek, and Anjali Shah had an amazing time making delicious Boston Cream donuts in Baking. Riya Easwaran had so much fun hitting golf balls at our trip to Top Golf. Julia Sassine and Caitlyn Johnson were very crafty making paracord bracelets in Art Too. We are so excited for Week 6 here at camp!

~ Kayla & Tarsha, Counselors & Mandy, Buddy

KIDDIE KINGDOM PARTY THROUGH THE SEASON

Every day is a party in KK. For Rainbow Day everyone matched in pink and the whole camp was springing with colors! School Spirit had us fall-ing into a rhythm practicing for our Camp Show! The campers are all gearing up for a spectacular show week 7. We can't wait to see you then. In the spirit of Sportsmanship, we cozied up as Artists & Athletes. Rolling ping pong balls around in paint, we created masterpieces! The end of the week was spent in real celebration of summer! Thursday was our outrageous Foam Party and Fri-Yay was our amazing Dance Party! Everyone showed off their snazzy dance moves! This week during DL Time, we went on a Nature Walk Adventure collecting things that are interesting and beautiful. Boy, does the world have some extraordinary Nature! We challenge you to keep the party going! Try our scavenger hunt at home. Please find 1 item from each season (Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall). Wear all 4 at the same time and take a picture and send it to us at camp! Please e-mail your pictures to Rachel@EaglesLandingDayCamp.com. Here are some examples to help you along:

Winter - Scarf
Spring - Baseball Cap
Summer - Sunglasses
Fall - Flannel/Sweatshirt

Looking forward to the rest of the summer here at ELDC!

~ Sara & Lori, Kiddie Kingdom Division Leaders & Julia, Head Counselor

B6A's Amazing Week!

As B6A crosses the halfway mark for our awesome summer of 2024, our group started week 5 with a burst of energy shown by Humza Imam and Marvin Kendall representing B6A's sportsmanship and skill in Ga Ga. B6A's competitiveness was clearly shown at Floorball, with Thomas Habecker showing his incredible athletic prowess by winning his match with ease. Across the camp, Krish Patel would reveal his outstanding precision at Hatchet Throwing, when he stuck all five hatchets into the wood twice in a row! Hudson Sandoval was an excellent bowman as he barely missed during Archery. Travis Shafer and Ian Cheromushnikov enjoyed watching their well-crafted rockets blast high above them during Rocketry. Lucas Mueller and Josh Muchow showed us who the real masters of the racetrack are during Go Karts. We guess it's sometimes better to drive than to fly. Ethan Roberts is making it apparent that he has very well-rounded capabilities when it comes to handiwork at Tools 'N Tech. Logan Ricaurte putting his excellent craftsmanship on display during Woodshop. With all of these exciting activities, one would get hungry eventually, so Lucas Rubin baked some amazing cookie dough cookies as a testament to his culinary prowess in Baking. With half of our summer gone as if in an instant, B6A will make the events of the next 3 weeks the best memories of 2024.

~ Lucas, Counselor & Jayden, Jr. Counselor

G7A SLAYS

G7A had an amazing week 5. Abigail Aleixo and Ameera McDonald showed off their sportsmanship skills playing Floorball during Electives. Sophia Beck and Kayla Macan did a great job showing off their serving skills during Volleyball. Sadie Gural had so much fun hitting golf balls at Top Golf. La-bella Ruperto loved making and eating homemade pizza during Cooking. Avani Pamnani and Gemma Dinicola raced the tracks during Go Karts. Natalia Gibson did an amazing job making plant holders out of cement in Makerspace. Natalie Lederman had a blast competing in the Ga Ga pit this week. River Russo had so much fun zipping down the Ziplines on the Ropes Course. Kylie Reynolds and Liliana Golubev baked delicious sugar cookies in Baking. G7A slayed this week and can't wait to slay the next!

~ Taylor, Counselor & Jamestina, Jr. Counselor

COMPUTERS

If you visit the Nest, you're likely to find fun and even a little learning. In Coding, our campers are learning to code with dance parties, Minecraft, and Flappy Birds. Our more experienced coders are creating games, complex stories, and more. If your group comes to Spheros we will traverse the obstacle course, solve the maze, code animations, and much more. Come to the Nest for these great activities and much much more!

~ Andy, Computers Instructor

G5A All the way

This week was the best one yet for G5A. Hadie Sher and Sofia Calefato could not wait to go to Liberty Science Center and they had the best time ever! Sarah Ternyila celebrated her birthday and loved showing off her skills in the Ga Ga pit. Delaney Regler and Chloe Barkalow were so excited for the Stay Late and loved the crafts and smores. Anaya Pamnani and Cassie Pfefferkorn blew us away with their vocal skills in Karaoke. Sydney DeStefano showed us her A game in Mini Golf. Ella Garfinkle loved competing in the Head, Shoulders, Knees, Cup game at Tribes! Mia Farkas was a Newcomb champion! Week 5 was one for the books for these girls and they can't wait to keep going next week.

~ Aditi, Counselor & Alyssa, Jr. Counselor

From the LIT/CIT Division Leader....

The CITs and LITs have been busy campers and volunteers the past five weeks! The LITs have enjoyed a wide variety of fun and skill-building activities during their Elective periods. Playing Football, Water Tag, Ga Ga, Giant Games, and Miniature Golf have been keeping them active and entertained. They have made lots of yummy sweets and delicious entrees and sides in Baking and Cooking. The LITs have traveled to Asbury Park, Urban Air, and ProSkate. They also went to the Raritan Food Pantry where they unloaded and organized 1,800 pounds of donated food. Each of them showed leadership, created positive memories, and took initiative to collaboratively work together. After their hard work, the LITs had lunch at Duke Island Park and had some fun on the playground. At camp, the LITs have been busy planning and organizing a camp-wide Food Drive. Donations are being collected until week 7. Items needed include crackers, granola bars, laundry detergent, gift cards to ShopRite, tuna fish, bottled orange and cranberry juice, condiments, toilet paper, baby wipes and diapers, and feminine hygiene products. Campers/Families can drop off items at the PT Tent or in the office each morning.

The CITs and LITs have been fully engaged in their groups' camp schedules. Lots of smiles, waves, and hugs are seen as LITs and CITs pass by their groups on the path throughout the day. The CITs were able to experience their first evaluation as a CIT during weeks 3 and 4. This was a time to highlight CITs' successes and goals thus far. We are so proud of the CITs for being role models at camp each and every day. The CITs have a special trip to the beach this week which they are looking forward to to celebrate their hard work and dedication to Eagle's Landing. We are looking forward to the rest of the summer!

~ Shannon, LIT/CIT Division Leader

Science

This week the Science area has been trying out some delicious recipes! Did you get to make ice cream or rock candy?? This year we made different varieties of ice cream, Strawberry, chocolate, mint chocolate chip, and cookies N' cream! The Electives have been working on STEM activities like pasta bridges, solar water heaters, and paper roller coasters! Other activities range from making snow, sidewalk chalk, and lava lamps! We are having so much fun in Science!

~ Rachel & Irene, Science Instructors

SOARING THROUGH WEEK 5 WITH BKB

Week 5 has been a blast for BKB! Aiden Kaufman and Luke Caffrey had an awesome time playing T-ball. Luke showed off his awesome swinging skills and launched a ball to right field! With Aiden's fast-running skills, he was able to make it to home plate! Nate Weiss did not want the fun to end during this week's Dance Party. While at Arts & Crafts, Isaac Uniman painted a stunning background using watercolors; he was very careful and precise with the paintbrush! During DL time, Jack DeAlmeida had a great time going on a Nature Walk and even found some keepsakes to add to his frame! At Ninja, Hunter Berman transformed into a TRUE ninja and showed off his awesome moves. Isaac Becker used all his favorite colors while painting his handprint that he made in Ceramics. While at Show practice, Angelo DiTaranto had so much fun dancing and preparing for the show, he even helped the counselors prepare for their dance too! Carter George had a blast at Beach Time. He made sand castles and dug for treasure in the sand. Music time was Omar Bray's favorite time of the day! He was able to sing some of his favorite songs with his friends. Week 5 has been filled with so much excitement and joy we can't wait for Week 6!

~ Nevaeh & Brittany, Counselors

FRUITY PEBBLES CUPCAKES

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 eggs
- 1.5 cup sugar
- .75 cups butter
- 1.5 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2.25 cups All-purpose flour
- 2.25 teaspoon baking powder
- A pinch of salt
- .75 cups milk
- 0.5 cups rainbow sprinkles
- 1.5 cups butter
- 3.5 cups confectioners sugar
- 2 tablespoon heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon vanilla extract
- 1 cup fruity pebbles

DIRECTIONS:

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Line a standard 12- cup standard muffin tin with paper liners; set aside.
2. In a large bowl, combine flour, baking powder and salt.
3. In a medium bowl, whisk together milk, egg whites and vanilla.
4. In the bowl of an electric mixer fitted with paddle attachment, beat butter and eggs at medium speed until light and fluffy, about 2-3 minutes. With mixer on low speed, add dry ingredients and milk mixture alternately in 3 parts, beginning and ending with dry ingredients, beating just until incorporated. Add rainbow sprinkles and stir using rubber spatula just until moist.
5. Scoop the batter evenly in to the muffin tray. Place into oven and bake for 15-18 minutes, or until tester inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from oven and cool completely on a wire rack before frosting.
6. In the bowl of an electric mixer fitted with paddle attachment, beat butter and confectioners' sugar on medium speed until light and fluffy, approximately 1-2 minutes. With the mixer on low speed, gradually add heavy cream and vanilla, beating just until incorporated. Increase speed to medium high and beat until frosting is light and fluffy, approximately 1-2 minutes.
7. Use a small offset spatula or a pastry bag fitted with a decorative tip to frost cupcakes, garnished with Fruity Pebbles.

~ Aggie & Mary, Baking Instructors

We THRIVED during Week Five!
Eagle's Landing is the best!
