Week 4

Special Events

Week 4 was the best week yet! I can't believe we are half way through the summer. We started off the week with UNDER THE SEA DAY where campers found pictures of sea creatures all around camp. They got to trade in their picture for a pirate keychain at the end of the day. TEAM TUESDAY was a great spirit day for campers and staff to represent the teams they love. CARNIVAL was a blast on Wednesday. Campers got to enjoy rides and inflatables, as well as carnival booth games, face painting, balloon animals, and fun foods. Campers and staff look forward to Carnival all year long and it finally happened! Definitely one of the best days of the summer! WHITE OUT DAY was very exciting with a new game called, "Bonkers" where campers got to throw socks filled with color powder at each other. If the sock hit them, they had to switch sides. The goal was to get everyone on your side. Everyone showed their camp spirit for Camp T-Shirt Day! There were so many different styles of ELDC camp shirts on display. We can't wait for what's in store during week 5!

This week at camp was an unforgettable splash of excitement, team spirit, and color—literally! On Team Tuesday, everyone repped their favorite teams and worked together in fun team challenges that brought out their best camp energy.

Carnival Day was the highlight of the week—our entire camp transformed into a real-life carnival! From spinning rides to cotton candy, balloon animals to ring toss, it was a full day of thrills and laughter. Campers couldn't stop smiling!

Then came White Out Day, where everyone wore white and turned into walking rainbows during wild and wonderful color powder games. We wrapped things up on Camp T-Shirt Day, showing off our camp pride as one big, happy family.

This week also featured our Boys 3/4 and Girls 7/8 Stay Lates—an evening full of extra games, dinner, and more time to bond with friends after hours!

And of course, the Tribes were in full competition mode all week! Drumroll, please... this week's Tribe winner is the LADINGS!

This week in Nature we loved hanging out at Sammy the eagle's mining company and going gem mining! Gem mining is one of ELDC's favorite activities! Campers have the opportunity to feel like a real paleontologist when searching for fossils like ammonites and shark teeth. When mining for seashells we learned about the different types of shells and the creatures that once lived in them. After sifting away all the sand and finding all sorts of cool gemstones, our campers practiced being a geologist and identified all the different stones they found based on size, color, and texture! Our friends Franklyn, the bearded dragon; Melissa and Cleo, the leopard geckos; the baby goats; and our many chickens are so excited to continue a wonderful summer! Happy NATURE-ing!

Sweet Success

Campers are Baking Up Smiles at Eagles Landing! The scent of freshly baked donuts and cookies wafted through the air this week as campers rolled up their sleeves and dove into baking. Everyone who visited the bake shop this week took part in hands-on baking activities where they measured, mixed, and molded their way to delicious creations. This week our younger campers learned to make multiple types of cookies; a camp favorite was the birthday cake cookies. While our older campers experimented with baking and decorating all flavors of donuts from the classic vanilla donut to key lime pie donuts. Coming to the bake shop isn't just about making treats — it's also an opportunity for campers to practice teamwork, patience, and creativity. With flour-dusted hands and big smiles, our ELDC bakers left with more than full bellies. They gained a new skill, memories with friends, and perhaps even a spark for future culinary adventures!

~ Lizzie & Lisa, Baking Instructors

P.S. A Lot of our campers have been asking for all the recipes that they are making during camp, so we are working to create a recipe book! We will share it at the end of the summer!

G6Best Group In Camp!

This was such an amazing week at camp. Sophie Abramov loved the new spring rolls at lunch! Chloe Barkalow, Zoe Rubin, and Sydney DeStefano had a blast at Yestercades. Sarah Cada loved taking things apart in Tools 'n Tech. Sofia Calefato and Gwen Kolibas really enjoyed our Carnival fun! Sofia Dassaro loved the electives she picked this week! Maggie Kipnis and Cassie Pfefferkorn loved Drama Show and can't wait for opening night! Audrey Lemmon loved baking donuts this week. We are having the best time at the best camp and can't wait to see what the rest of the summer brings!

G6ALL ABOUT SUMMER!

We had a great week with G6A this week. Sofia Abaskharoun, Lucy Apostle, and Aria Katsnelson had the greatest time at carnival. Madeline Ceretti showed her artistic side in ceramics. Elia Clarke dominated at kickball. Harper Dinicola loved being back at archery. Ella Garfinkle and Delaney Haas dodged and jumped at Ga Ga! Ella Mulhern rehearsed her role at the drama show. Violet Lasko rocked the video games at Yestercades. Olivia Robinson loved gem mining, Milania Wilder was a volleyball star, and Sarah Strangreciak was a master at Woodshop. Madison Marx and Rebecca Recuay, as always, loved making memories with their friends. We can't believe the summer is halfway done, and can't wait for an amazing second half!

WELLNESS

The sun is shining, skies so blue,
Laughter echoes, all day through.

Band-aids and smiles, quick fixes we find,
Healing hearts and clearing minds.

With every scrape and tiny tear,
I'm here to help, to show I care.

A summer of fun, friendship, and cheer,
At camp, there's love in every year!
