

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

Volume 13

Smiles Guaranteed

Week 7

Cardboard Boats, Beach Days, and Boo-tiful Fun!

This week at camp was packed with laughter, creativity, and plenty of unforgettable moments! We kicked things off with Mustache Monday, where campers rocked all kinds of silly and stylish 'staches. Our 1st graders enjoyed a cozy Pajama Breakfast, while 2nd graders got to stay late for extra evening fun, complete with a sing-along under the Blue & White. Rodeo Day brought a western flair to camp, and "Yacht or Not" had teams building boats from cardboard and duct tape to sail a teammate across the pool—some floated, some... well, didn't! Older campers in grades 7–10 soaked up the sun on their trip to Belmar Beach, while grades 5/6 had a blast at Funzilla. The Lower Camp Shows stole the spotlight, with Kiddie Kingdom performing hits from the Trolls movies and grades 1–2 showcasing Disney favorites. We wrapped up the week in spooky style with Halloween Day on Friday—cool costumes, and camp magic all around!

This week's Tribal activity was learning their specific tribe's song and cheer in preparation for Tribal Day next week. The winner for tribes this week was determined by campers demonstrating SMILE: Sportsmanship, Memories, Independence, Leadership, and Excellence. Congratulations to the Camdels for taking home the win!

SPECIAL EVENTS

We are making the last 2 weeks the best 2 weeks! Everyone got to show off their mustaches for MUSTACHE MONDAY. There were inflatable horses hid around camp on Rodeo Day. The campers had the chance to go around and find all the horses. The division who found the most horses will get an ice cream of their choice during week 8. Yacht or Not was so much fun! Campers in 2nd through 6th grade built cardboard boats during their first swim period on Wednesday and then got to sail their boats during their second swim. The goal was to make it across the pool in the boat. Our Kiddie Kingdom, 1st, and 2nd grade campers got to shine like stars on the stage for the Lower Camp Shows on Thursday! All of their practice and hard work finally came to fruition. HALLOWEEN DAY is always a favorite. Campers and staff loved the chance to dress up in different costumes. Lower camp campers also got the chance to go trick-or-treating around camp! We're looking forward to a great end to the summer season. One more week to go!

~ Shira, Special Events Coordinator

Music

Camp is winding down to a close, but our love for music just keeps growing! In Kiddie Kingdom, we have been using instruments like rhythm sticks and shaker eggs. In 1st and 2nd grade, we have been learning echo songs and playing music games. Our favorites are "Doggy, Where's Your Bone?" and "Old Raggy." Lower camp showed off their dancing feet in their show this week! We loved seeing them shine on stage. 5th and 6th graders have been enjoying singing their favorite songs, especially from K-Pop Demon Hunters, in Karaoke Elective. It is also almost time for our drama shows - 3/4 in The Treasure of Friendship, 5/6 in Honk! Jr., and 7/8/9 in Pure Imagination. We have been adding props, costumes, and set pieces to make sure our performances are the best they can be. You won't want to miss our talented campers!

~ Colleen, Music

BKBUDDIES

BKB boys had such an amazing week 7 full of fun activities! Starting off, Asher Foger loved making plants in Nature, it was such a cool and interesting project! Raphael Traps always has a blast at Soccer and enjoyed challenging his friends to see who can get to the ball faster to score! Easton Lee and Jake Kalisky enjoyed Basketball, they were excited when they got the ball in the basket! In Cooking, Lucas Skolnick made a spider with bananas, pretzels, and cinnamon, it was super yummy. Ryan Lendensky and Nathan Nguyen loved learning cool new poses in Yoga this week! Our Kiddie Kingdom Show was a hit, Liam Lam and Aiden Kaufman performed with the biggest smiles on their faces. We are so excited to see what fun is in store for our last week of camp!

~ Alfreda & Emma, Counselors

BKCoolest Boys at Camp

BKC had another awesome week during week 7! They had so much fun climbing on the tires and playing Duck Duck Goose together! Mark Alexandrov loved playing on the fire truck with his friends during Wooden Trucks! Max Connors did a great job making baskets during Basketball, he is a pro! Angelo DiTaranto showed us his artistic skills and loved making a colorful fish during Arts & Crafts! Tony Fama loves the Playground, he enjoys playing tag and using his imagination with the blue blocks. Jack Huberman loved watching the sink or float experiment during Science! Cameron Karyczak had so much fun scoring goals during Soccer with his friends! Chance Nelson loved showing off his moves during our Kiddie Kingdom Show, it was awesome. We can't wait to have one more week of fun at camp!

~ Tamea & Sophia, Counselors

ARTS & CRAFTS' COLORFUL WEEK

Week 7 saw Kiddie Kingdom crafting rainbows and butterflies. First graders made colorful tambourines and maracas and 2nd graders experimented with pointillism. Campers in 3rd grade turned paper bags into otters and 4th grade wove watermelons. Upper campers made pop-up cards and applied beautiful henna designs. In electives, campers signed up to make pizza pillows, pasta mosaics, and paint giant geodes. Week 7 was great and we can't wait for week 8!

G1Action-Packed Days

G1A jumped into an action-packed week filled with excitement, energy, and endless fun! Madelyn Claffey and Melanie Bryansmith enjoyed their yummy breakfast of pancakes and cereal. Nomi Marcus had a blast in Arts & Crafts, building her brightly-colored rainbow tambourine. Juliana Napolitano and Leora Sedler worked side-by-side to build a giant Lego tower and other amazing Lego creations. Nyla Russell had the best time at Beach Time, giggling as she built sandcastles and dug a hole to make her very own mini pool. Vienna Kaplan and Asha Kahrim laughed with excitement during Science as they mixed ingredients and watched their mud explosions bubble and burst on the paper to make a wonderful picture. Hannah Rosenberg had such a great time during DL Time, running around with a big smile as she joined in the water balloon fight. Ella Knee and Eliana Kahan shined on stage, beaming with joy as they performed “Soda Pop” and “Golden” from K-Pop Demon Hunters, wowing their friends and counselors in the audience with their amazing moves! Kanaya Patel had a fantastic time running, jumping, and laughing as she bounced all over the Tires. G1A had smiles all around and hearts full of fun, as they are getting ready for even more adventures ahead!

~ Lex & Macy, Counselors

Painting with Spheros

This week in Technology, we traded our keyboards for paintbrushes—or rather, for Spheros! Using vibrant splashes of purple, blue, teal, and green, campers turned our coding robots into rolling artists, creating incredible paint-covered masterpieces. With the coding skills we’ve been perfecting all summer, we programmed our Spheros to zip, spin, and swirl through paint before dancing across the paper in colorful trails. The result? A perfect blend of tech and creativity—and a whole lot of fun (plus a few happy paint splatters on us, too)!

~ Giulia, Technology Coordinator

G5A Fun in the Sun!

The girls of G5A kept the fun going this week at camp. Matilda Almeida got super creative making an eye mask in Art Too. Sophia Mushailov, Juliette Oliveras, and Marley Burnett tried out all the cool things to offer on our trip to Funzilla. Claudia Gu worked showed teamwork and strength at Ropes. Avery Haesloop loved working with Leo to make dry ice bubbles in Science. Wrenna Koching, Liliana Lebron, and Teagan Maietta thought painting with Spheros was one of the most creative activities offered this summer. Rayna Katz showed her skills in dance elective. Tehya Matthews and Kiki ODonnell spent time making memories with their camp friends. Kayla Shocklin loved her designs in Arts & Crafts. We’re so sorry to see the summer coming to an end and so grateful for all the joy it has brought us!

THE FUN CONTINUES IN BKD

Week 7 with BKD has been Fantastic! We kicked off the week at Soccer where Syllas Lam had a blast playing with his friends and kicking the ball into the goal. Watch out major soccer leagues, here comes Syllas! During Science, Leo Scalora and Beckham Lee had an awesome time making bubbles and creating their own bubble wand. It was so cool! At Lego Land, Hunter Berman and Cole Andreuzzi had a blast building with the big Legos, they definitely have a future in architecture. During Ga Ga, Graham Solomon had an awesome time playing a new game with his friends. He did amazing! Samuel Bodinger and Nate Weiss had a blast singing and dancing during Music! Jack DeAlmeida and Isaac Uniman raced down the Basketball court and shot some amazing baskets. The NBA better watch out for these two! Frank Kelso made an adorable heart shaped pinch pot and painted it during Ceramics! Hunter Nguyen slid straight down the slide on the Playground, he looked just like Superman! Wyatt Ciszski and Luke Caffrey took the stage and showed off their amazing moves during Dance! Luca Rivera-Aunio and Jahziel Gershkovich watched the bucket drop and splash water on them and their friends at Spray Park! BKD had a fantastic Week 7 and can’t wait for Week 8!

~ Alicia, Aliya, & Brittany, Counselors

B4A's Wonderful Week 7

Week 7 was one to remember for B4A. Reid Sedler and Logan Frayne had a great time playing Prisonball. Jude Apostol and Logan Perez raced each other down the Zipline. Aditya Tatta was hitting hole-in-one's at Mini Golf. TJ Hartman and Brandon Hughes competed against B4B in an intense Kickball game. Nicholas Lericos competed in some Ping Pong matches while Thomas Kelso was scoring goals at Floorball. We welcomed Owen Gladis back to the group this week where he enjoyed participating in the spider web activity at Ropes. Blake Arvin and Giro Passero loved running the bases at Tennis Baseball. Cameron Kerner and Declan Gill enjoyed some games at Ga Ga. Lastly, Jax Van Name enjoyed making candy sushi at Cooking. It was an eventful week 7 and we cannot believe summer is almost over.

~David & Kirey, Counselors

SPORTS

This week at camp, the energy on the sports fields reached a new level as campers were finally able to put the skills they've been learning into action and play full games! Kiddie Kingdom boys had a blast playing a lively game of sideline soccer, competing in exciting 1 v 1 battles that kept everyone on their toes. They also had a great time on the basketball court, working on their shots and having fun scoring baskets. Boys in 3rd grade brought the heat in an intense and fun-filled game of flag football, showing off their teamwork and competitive spirit. Over on the volleyball court, the 6th grade girls practiced their serves and had the chance to use them in a full game, putting their hard work into play. It's been a fun and rewarding week as campers experienced the full excitement of gameplay!

~ Bianca, Sports Instructor

B4Builders

This summer has been nothing but a blast for B4B! Andrew Abramov and Kellan Dhruv enjoyed candy sushi at Cooking. Itai Strum and Nate Velazquez loved making new codes during their Coding elective. Jeremy Shmulewitz and Tyler Turcotte had a lot of fun during kickball. Ryan Kahrim and Victor Zambrano enjoyed a fun game of whale watching at Ropes. Cooper Daneker and Jaiden Thompson built an awesome yacht during Yacht or Not. Nate Callahan and Matthew Bozzelli zoomed down Sammy's Speedway during Go Karts. Ben Yosevitz and Zayn Siddique loved learning their new tribal cheers during tribes this week. Zack Hirsch practiced hard during Drama Show rehearsal and we cannot wait to see him in the show next week. B4B is looking forward to a wonderful last week of camp!

~ Ben & Henry, Counselors, & Elizabeth, Buddy

7/8 Girls & Boys Division is Where It's At!

The 7/8 division has truly been having an unbelievable summer and although we are starting to get a little sad that our days are waning, we are equally as excited to finish off the summer together with fun, sun, and friendships that will extend long past the final day of camp.

As a group, we ventured around the historic city of Princeton and competed against each other in a Princeton-centered scavenger hunt - while of course making time for Playa Bowls and burritos along the way! We also tested our skills in a variety of games at Yescarcades in Metuchen. We played Mario Kart, NBA2K and also got to see some of the old arcade games that we used to enjoy as kids - it was pretty cool seeing the campers realize how much gaming has changed over the years. We also got to show off our skills on skates at the roller rink and got to spend an awesome day together at the beach.

While we are incredibly excited for our end-of-summer bash in week 8, we are also holding onto all the memories we made - on trips and here at camp. Both groups had amazing stay-lates which saw the girls spend time making tote bags and having fun with henna tattoos for each other and saw the boys compete in their first annual 7th vs 8th grade camp games. Both the boys and girls have shown kindness, leadership and spirit throughout the summer and we look forward to finishing out the camp year strong as a group!

~Jeanine & Mike, 7/8 Division Leaders, & Mekhai, Asst. Division Leader

B6BLASTING THROUGH WEEK 7

B6B coming at you guys with another successful week full of excitement and fun. Ryan Brevetti and Sean Gladis were hitting dingers and making great plays in the outfield during Tennis Baseball. Riley Ciszieski and Bryce Kerner had an amazing time jumping around trampolines and gliding through the obstacle course during our trip at Funzilla. Benny Hirsch really enjoyed the peace of casting a line and watching the water waiting for a bite during Fishing. Jaxx Jhamnani and Ryder Levine were moving like lightning trying to steal the bacon during Basketball. Jack Kenavey and Yaron Strum are getting closer and closer to showtime and are working hard at perfecting their lines for the Drama Show. Armin Kepple-Heinrich and Ricky Mato never have anything less than an amazing time diving into the mythical world of magic and monsters during Dungeons & Dragons. Ariel Shpilman put his diver's gear on and was going all out trying to get the brick at the bottom of the pool during Instructional Swim. Ryan Weltman enjoyed getting to know his groupmates while engaging in a plethora of fun Board Games with all of them. B6B can't wait to see what's in store for the last week of camp including the end-of-summer bash!

~ Jayden & Gavin, Counselors

B2B Bouncing Around

What an amazing way to end Week 7! Warren Frabizio was having an incredible time showing off his dribbling skills during basketball. Avi Mehta had a blast with Hunter Vorhees as they were going down the slide. During Scooters, Nathan Fentin and Ryan Hwang were racing so fast down the path! Zach Bodgas-Dipilatio and Henry Corney were having so much fun making art projects together during Arts & Crafts. Cameron Rivas and Austin Meehan were having a blast showing their moves during our Lower Camp Show. During Cooking, Orys Correia and Nate Nossen were making Monster Apples that they really enjoyed. We can't wait for the last week of camp!

~ Kevin & Lucas, Counselors; Angie, Shadow; & Nick, Buddy

G5B Loving Life!

Week 7 was our best yet with G5B! Samaaya Bhargava and Gabby Rowe continue to shine in Drama Show. Emily Branda built a birdhouse in Woodshop. Stella Gural cast her line at Fishing and Isabella Napolitano dominated at Ga Ga. Sophie Muchow and Ariana Oshidar loved all that Funzilla had to offer! Averie Owens sang her heart out at Karaoke. Kailey Thakker was a great team player at Ropes! Zoey Pashichow always has a great time at Tools 'n Tech and Emily Perkins loved showing her engineering skills during Yacht or Not. What a week for us here at G5B, it just keeps getting G5Better!

~ Nidhi & Adainah, Counselors

From the Camp Kitchen: Fueling Fun!

At camp, we believe great adventures start with great food! Our kitchen team works hard every day to provide campers with nutritious, balanced meals that keep them egg-cited and ready to lettuce have fun. From fresh fruits and crisp veggies to hearty proteins and wholesome grains, we make sure every plate is packed with goodness. We love to spice things up with fun food days, colorful snacks, and tasty treats that are truly soup-er satisfying. As we head into the last week of camp, be sure to swing by the kitchen and let our staff know your favorite meal of the summer—we'd be grilled to hear it! After all, happy campers are well-fed campers!

~ The Kitchen Staff

From the 3rd and 4th Grade Division Leaders

This summer, the 3rd and 4th grade boys and girls have had so much fun participating in activities, making connections, and trying new things. The boys have been busy cooking delicious treats, scoring goals during Soccer, and engaging in science experiments during Science! During our Division Leader time, we have been developing our teamwork skills by participating in an Under-Over Relay Challenge, as well as flexing our mind muscles during Riddle Trivia! This past Wednesday was Wacky Water Day! During Wacky Water Day, we got sprayed down by a fire truck and played fun water games. It was a slippery, fun day!

The 3rd and 4th grade girls have been having a blast at camp. We have been crafting lanyards, baking treats with sprinkles, and playing in the pool. The girls learned about empathy and what it means to show it towards a friend. The girls sang their hearts out during Karaoke and were heard from all ends of camp. We had such a great time at Carnival where we tried out new rides and ate yummy food.

This coming Wednesday, August 20, is the debut of our Drama Show, Treasure of Friendship. Our 3rd and 4th graders have been super busy rehearsing and preparing to go on stage. We hope to see you there! This has been an awesome summer and we can not believe it is already ending! See you next summer!

~Libby & Evan, Division Leaders & Sydney, Assistant Division Leader

~Samara & Sruthi, Counselors

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 tbsp butter
- 4 cups mini marshmallows
- 6 cups crispy rice cereal
- Gummy Shark Candy
- Fruit Roll Up Candy

DIRECTIONS:

1. In a large pot over medium heat, melt the butter and then stir in the marshmallows. Mix until melted.
2. Remove from heat and mix in your rice cereal. Stir well to combine.
3. While your rice crispy mixture is still warm pour into a large sheet pan (sprayed with non-stick spray) and flatten it out.
4. Once your rice crispy treats have cooled slightly, cut out rice crispy treats the same size, about 2 inches wide.
5. Place your gummy shark on top of the rice crispy treat
6. Unroll your fruit roll up and cut into long strips.
7. Wrap your fruit roll up around the shark and rice crispy treat to look like sushi.
8. Serve your shark candy sushi with chopsticks, while you're watching Shark Week of course!
